DRAMATIC SCENES WITNESSED IN TRIAL OF CHICAGO YOUTHS TWO PERISH IN DISASTROUS FIRE AT RANGER BRAZILIAN FEDERAL TROOPS FAIL TO MAKE ADVANCE

REBELS MAKING EFFORTS AGAIN TO PROVOKE UPRISING

BUENOS AIRES, July 24.—The attack in force by Brazilian Federal troops on the Sao Paulo rebels has failed, according to radio messages here today, and a new bombardment of Sao Paulo City has been started by the invading Government armies. Camp Ellses, the palatial home of the Governor of Sao Paulo has been damaged by artillery fire. It was abandoned by Governor Carlos Campos soon after the rebellion started.

The rebels are making a new effort to incite an uprising in Rio de Janeiro and have circulated a report they intend to attempt an advance on the capital along the Central Do Brasil railway. This story, however, has caused little worry in Government circles as the railway is well protected by loyal troops and an effort to reach Rio by this route is considered impossible.

Radio messages from Santos, port of Sao Paulo, say the coffee capital virtually is deserted except for the military and many districts are in ruins. Loss of life among the civilian population was heavy in the district of Brazil, thickly populated by Italian factory workers. Scores of these people were killed by stray shells during the bombardment, despite the fact both rebels and Federal did their best to spare the noncombatants.

News Launches Own Your Home Campaign Here

The Mexia Daily News has secured the services of A. H. Motter in launching an "Own Your Home Campaign" in Mexia. The campaign includes a series of thirty illustrated pages on the subject, participated in and made possible through the co-operation of the various business firms of Mexia. The plan adopted is now being used in El Dorado, Little Rock, Shreveport, Houston, Sherman and San Antonio and it is believed will be helpful in building more homes and a bigger and better Mexia.

Mr. Motter is now seeing the business men in regard to the proposition and The News will appreciate a most careful consideration of the campaign, to the end that the full co-operation of the city thus join with the press in meeting the greatest problem before the people of Mexia, the problem of more homes.

WATERMELON SHOOT

The Tengue Gun club has challenged the Mexia Gun club for a watermelon shoot to be held Friday afternoon July 25. All members are urged to be present and visitors are always welcome. Shooting will begin at 1 p.m.

The prayer meeting service at local churches each Wednesday night is constantly growing in interest and in numbers. Many look forward to the weekly service, as a real help to them in the midst of the busy days of the week.

ARCH FUND GROWS FOR HUGHES PARK

In the midst of the activities of the political season, with the primaries of Saturday rapidly approaching and with interest high in the campaign, The News has not been prosecuting its plan, for the past few days, for the Hughes Arch to Hughes Park. Despite this, however, subscriptions to the fund continue to come in and the matter will be carried on to an early successful conclusion immediately following the elections of Saturday. All who are anxious to have a part in this work, are urged to send in their contributions at once.

THIRTY NINE ARRESTED CHARGED WITH RIOTING IN MINERS AGITATION

WILBURTON, Okla., July 24.—Thirty-nine persons were either under arrest today or sought upon warrants issued by County Attorney Claude Briggs charging riot in connection with the union agitation open shop mines in Latimer county which came to a head last week when non-union workmen were forced to leave work in the Kala-Inla mine near Hartshorne.

Twenty-one persons have been arrested, sixteen being taken into custody at Hartshorne late yesterday. Eight Hartshorne workers were at liberty under bonds of $2,000 each to day after pleading not guilty to riot charges at arraignment earlier in the

URGE DEATH ON GALLows FOR BOYS

CHICAGO, July 24.—True bills were returned by the Cook county grand jury charging Walter Borica and Ignatius Ciombra, both 19, with attempting to extort $8,000 from Jacob Franks, father of Robert Franks, 14, who was murdered by Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb.

The two boys sent a letter to Franks June 21, a month after the murder of Keler, threatening to kidnap Josephine, 16 year old sister of Robert. They demanded $8,000.

Borica and Ciombra admitted sending the letter because they believed the elder Franks was so terrorized by the loss of his son that he would pay.

Friends and intimates of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb helped the state pave the way for the punishment for the millionaire youths who murdered Robert. Slowly but surely State Attorney Grove produced damning fragments of evidence which he hopes will force Chief Justice Caverly to order the boys hanged.

A dramatic moment in today's session of the trial came when Elizabeth Hattler, maid in the Leopold home, took the stand. With a strong bond of affection between the maid and young Leopold, the latter stiffened as she took the stand. She identified the typewriter used in writing the ransom letter as one similar belonging to Leopold. Also identified other personal effects belonging to the boy which were entered as evidence.

Dr. Emilideutsch, specialist, testified that the glasses found near the body of Robert Franks had been prescribed for Nathan Leopold.

In Limestone and Freestone counties, the Mexia Daily News will be the first to know the results and the first to tell the public just how the voters voted.

Saturday night, shortly following the close of the polls, bulletins will begin to come in, which will be posted promptly and which will later appear in the News of Sunday morning.

The public is invited to avail themselves of the exclusive service secured by the home daily newspaper and assemble in Mexia Saturday evening to get the news fresh from the polls of Texas.

The vote will likely be the largest in the history of the Democratic party in Texas and will be watched eagerly until all doubt has been dismissed as to what the people think.

It is estimated that around 7,000 ballots will be polled in Limestone county.

TEXANS TO CAST HEAVY VOTE IN DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY

As in all hard fought contests, the results of the political elections in Limestone county and in the State are subjects of much conjecture and surmise, but, generally speaking only the candidates themselves are now venturing an opinion as to who will win.

In Limestone and Freestone counties, the Mexia Daily News will be the first to know the results and the first to tell the public just how the voters voted.

Ten Persons Hurled To Death Homeward Bound From Picnic

OAK HARBOR, Ohio, July 24.—Just as the State of Ohio was completing its first big step toward eliminating grade crossing accidents at a "safety first" conference of state, county and city officers meeting in Columbus, ten homeward bound picnickers were hurled to death near here last night when the bus in which they were riding was crushed by a speeding westbound New York Central passenger train.

The party will likely be the largest in the history of the Democratic party in Texas and will be watched eagerly until all doubt has been dismissed as to what the people think.

It is estimated that around 7,000 ballots will be polled in Limestone county.

The number of candidates in the race this time is greater than ever before, in this race, which will have its effect on the number he receives.

His old time strength, no doubt, has been weakened considerably.

The party had been to Lake Erie.

All were members of Seneca county fair clubs.

Survivors said the driver had stopped as he approached the crossing, got out and scanned the track. A train, eastbound, on a far track had just passed. He stepped behind his seat and drove onto the track in front of the train, speeding toward the west.

Tom Daugherty left at noon for Dallas, having been called to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Bertha Carroll, of that city. Mrs. Carroll is in the Parkland hospital where she has just undergone an operation. Her condition is described as critical in the telegram received by Mr. Daugherty.

ELECTION ATMOSPHERE.

BEN B. HUNT.

Election time is drawing near,
The air is awful hot!
So many folks have sought my vote,
I don't know which is what.
I don't know which ones to support,
I don't know what to think,
For each man says the other man
Is hardly worth a blink.

If we believe what each one says
About the other man,
Perhaps we'd want to tie to each
An old time rusty can.
Believing though what each may say
About his own dear self,
O how we'd like to see him win
And not laid on the shelf!

The air around election time
Grows lurid and intense,
As candidates—and voters too—
Sit out there on the fence.
They argue back and argue forth
And argue twixt and twain;
And push each other off the fence,
But some jump back again!

So now you ask what I will do
When comes the time to vote?
O I shall keep quite calm and cool
And never rock the boat!
I'll row my boat up to the polls,
I'll sail right in and vote,
I'll only seek the public weal
And not somebody's goat.

Then when election day is past
And we know who has won,
I'll not feel sore at any man
Beneath the shining sun.
I'll know I've done my level best,
That I've been on the square,
And none can say I've clouded up
The cool and fragrant air!

WOMEN DEMAND DRY DEMOCRATS IN PUBLIC LIFE

THREE CORNERED ELECTION TILT GROWS HEAT'D IN NATION

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 24.—In the fever heat of the colorful, three-cornered battle for the presidency, fraught with unprecedented possibilities, the dramatic touch may await the trial of Senator Wheeler of Montana, vice presidential candidate on the independent ticket now set for October—the crucial period of the campaign.

Wheeler's trial, at such a time, it was pointed out today in without parallel in American political history. It was recalled however, that Eugene V. Debs made the race for President on the Socialist ticket in 1920 from Atlanta Federal prison.

Quite unconcerned about the indictment on charges of misusing his office to promote the interests of a legal client which has been hanging over his head since spring, Wheeler, in a holiday mood, left today with his family to motor to Massachusetts. In the little fishing village of Wellfleet, on Cape Cod, he will rest for three weeks before starting on the strenuous barnstorming trip planned for him by the independent managers.

Wheeler said he had ceased to give the indictment any thought, after repeated efforts to have his trial expedited by the Department of Justice. He was indicted in the midst of his investigation of the acts of former Attorney General Daugherty and branded it as a "frame up" at the time. Only five Senators voted against a resolution "completely exonerating" Wheeler, after an investigation of the charges by a Senate committee, made at Wheeler's request.

"Because of the circumstances surrounding the indictment, I regard it as an asset in my campaign with Senator La Follette and not as a handicap," said Wheeler. "I am willing to go to trial tomorrow if the Department of Justice is willing, but if they want to conduct the campaign in the courts, I am willing to do that."

The Mexia Daily News today presents its 16 page Democratic Primary edition. Every candidate in the county and district offering for public office, have been solicited for statements by which the edition might prove helpful to citizens in determining their vote. Many have responded and the edition, therefore, presents a rather comprehensive statement of the issues of the campaign, each candidate stating his case in a straightforward, gentle way. Forceful arguments, without the use of strong terms, generally characterize the statements carried as political advertising.

ELEVEN INJURED WHEN BUSINESS BLOCK BURNS TODAY

RANGER, Texas, July 24.—Two persons are dead and one boy is missing, believed to have perished in a fire which destroyed half a block in the business district just after 2 o'clock this morning.

Eleven injured are in hospitals, among them being four women in serious condition.

M. B. McCrimmon, city engineer of Ranger, whose home is in Troup, and S. E. Taylor, manager of a laundry, are dead.

Billy Wallace, small son of the owner of the McCleskey hotel, after being brought out of the fire, returned to save his pet dog, is unaccounted for since. It is believed that he perished.

Mrs. Stella Holbrook, of Dallas, with both legs broken, is in a serious condition, after she jumped from a hotel window.

The monetary loss is estimated at $10,000.

The buildings destroyed are the McCleskey hotel, the Southland hotel, Ranger garage, Galloway's printing plant, Dixon Amos' grocery, Army store and two restaurants.

Editor's Case To Be Reviewed By New Mexico Court

EAST LAS CAGAS, N. M., July 24.—Under the custody of Sheriff Delgado, Sari C. Magee, editor of the New Mexico State Tribune, left the county jail for Santa Fe, where his conviction on contempt of court charges will be reviewed by the State Supreme Court, in response to habeas corpus proceedings filed after Delgado refused to recognize the pardon granted Magee by Governor Hinkle. Magee was sentenced for attacks on the New Mexico courts, published in the Tribune.

LARGE NUMBERS GATHER AT FAIRFIELD REUNION

Large numbers from here continue to attend the reunion at Fairfield. Great crowds are to be seen there daily. The picnic grounds occupy about two hundred acres. Many cottages also are on the grounds, now occupied by folks attending the annual event. A carnival company enlivens the scene and candidates for public office are thick, soliciting the votes of the people assembled.

SPIVEY POPULAR WITH BAR AND THE PEOPLE

Hon. Walter S. Hunnicutt, County Judge of Falls County and Ben Rice of Marlin, were here this morning, having spent the night here. They are interested in the campaign of John W. Spivey, of Falls County, candidate for Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Place No. 2. He has received generous support from many members of the McLennan County bar and also has many friends in Mexia. At present, the outlook is bright for him to carry the Mexia box.

Chester H. Machen Scores Opponents To His Candidacy

At 8:30 Wednesday night, on South Sherman street, near the Hurdleston hotel, Chester H. Machen of this city, candidate for District Judge of the Seventy Seventh Judicial District, comprised of Limestone and Freestone counties, discussed his candidacy and county affairs without fear or favor.

In the crowd assembled, were Judge A. M. Blackmon who is offering for re-election to this judicial position and other candidates for public office in the county and district. He was given an attentive and respectful hearing, as he discussed many matters of interest to citizens of the county, hitting his enemies in the contest and designating their ardent campaigners "ringmasters" and "lieutenants."

He stated that he was a prohibitionist and had been one since infancy; that he came to Mexia and this district fighting the liquor traffic and exerting all the power he had, day and night, in enforcing the laws of the state and nation.

The speaker asserted that he was being opposed by some who declared that he would not pay his debts. In this connection, he admitted that he was a poor man and that he had not been able to amass a fortune in public office, for he accepted the public pay check only and never resorted to other methods to enhance his wealth.

Mr. Schurman declared that he was not holding the heels of any man in this campaign, and that he had no campaign manager, and that he was merely asking that the people advance him another step up the ladder, if they felt that his record and his ability merited their endorsement in this way.

He said that some had criticised him for going out with Sheriff Whit Pooley and his deputies to catch bootleggers. He admitted that he had done this but that he had no apology to offer for so doing; and that if he was elevated to the district judgeship he would continue his efforts most strenuously to enforce every law on the books.

He stated that he had been criticised because he had not been able, with the assistance of the grand jury, last fall, in looking into the records of the county in connection with what had been termed unnecessary extravagances in the employment of lawyers outside the county and district attorneys' offices and also in connection with the new court house. He stated that he did his best until he went up against a "brick wall" and that he would be glad to refer any inquisitive minds to members of the grand jury in question.

He referred to opposition because of the part he had played in enforcing what is known as the nepotism law, stating that he had no apology to

It is in a gay color, then it is deeply hemmed with black.

Embroidery with braid or in the form of bangles, is displayed on many of the dressy blouses. The sleeves, in most instances are short, being suited to the season's demand. Interest is centered in the treatment of the neckline. Many models are collarless, showing a round or a square line. On the blouses without collar there is usually a slash down the front, which may be finished with braid, lace, embroidery or ribbon.

It is giving much consideration to the separate blouse, developing it in simple designs that home dressmakers can duplicate very readily. This design may be carried out in white, log cabin, French blue or Jade silk crepe. Fancy printed silk is used to outline the neck and sleeves. The scarf repeats the color of the blouse but is kept hemmed with black satin.

The diagram shows how the neck is finished. As soon as the blouse is cut and basted together, it is well to bind the neck so that it will not catch and pull it. Take a bias

Blackmon had received $17,500 for property which he owned used for the new court house site. He said that a few days ago, he came upon a crowd in Freestone county who were discussing the Limestone county court house and one of the party had said that they just had to go ahead and build the court house, else Mexia would move it up here. He stated that he replied that this was not true, that Mexia was, at that time, building good schools, paved streets, sanitary plants and was not wanting a court house. He said that Mexia did not want the court house, also, for fear that Bob Hannah might move up here with it, then he said that Bob Hannah was one of the ringmasters going around trying to defeat him for District Judge.

He told of his struggles when he first went to Groesbeck as District Attorney; that he met opposition which even tried to keep him from securing an office in the court house; that he was the only official in the county and district residing in Mexia and concluded by stating that he was making the fight of his life for the office and while so doing was not neglecting his duties as District Attorney.

ROBERTSON'S ENDORSEMENTS

of Texas.—C. M. Cain, Winnsboro, Texas.

I am not a politician, but a careful investigation of the records, principles and premises of the candidates for Governor of Texas at this time convinces me that Judge Felix D. Robertson is the best qualified, the most conservative, and by far the safest man in the race to entrust with this high and responsible office. Every man who stands for good, clean government, sane and absolutely dependable in every way, as an impartial and able executive, I regard him as a true, clean Christian gentleman.—J. O. Wright, Plainview, Texas.

I have known Judge Felix D. Robertson for a number of years, and have been intimately associated with him in some measure. My estimate of his character is such as to lead me to unhesitatingly support him. He is honest, he is capable, and I believe him a safe, sane, common sense executive. J. W. Blake, Ex-Chairman, State Democratic Committee, Houston, Texas.

I endorse the platform of Judge Felix Robertson and believe under the existing conditions it is the duty of every voter in Texas to support him. He is honest, he is capable, and I believe him a safe, sane, common sense executive. J. W. Blake, Ex-Chairman, State Democratic Committee, Houston, Texas.

I am supporting Felix D. Robertson for Governor because of his constructive platform and because I believe that he will make Texas the best Governor of recent years. He is an advocate of woman suffrage and will accord woman her place in the affairs of the State. He stands for law enforcement, lower taxes and better educational facilities—three planks that should commend him and his candidacy to every woman in our great State. Mrs. Emma Wylie Ballard, Founder of Hope Cottage, Dallas, Texas.

ANNUAL COST OF FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CUT TWO BILLION DOLLARS SINCE 1921

By ROBERT E. THORNEURGH,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The United States Government's operating expenses in 1924 will be two billion dollars under those of 1921—a figure exceeding the dividends paid by all the railroads in the country for the last five years.

This estimate of prodigious governmental cost cutting has been made public by General H. M. Lord, director of the budget, in connection with the announcement of probable expenditures in the new fiscal year.

Exclusive of the amount applied for the reduction of the public debt, all expenditures must be kept within three billion dollars, according to the veto issued by President Coolidge.

Next December the President will submit his annual budget to Congress; estimates, it was announced, exclusive of the public debt and postal service, will not be in excess of $1,500,000,000. Supplemental and other appropriations will keep the total within the three billion dollar figure, according to experts at the Treasury.

Must Cut Burden.
"The heavy burden of the taxpayer must be further lightened," Director Lord said. "Continued reduction in expenditure and continued restriction of estimates alone can accomplish tax cutting."

The taxpayer, who has patriotically and uncompromisingly paid more than $120,000,000,000 of war costs in the past few years, rightly feels that there should be relief from war taxation in larger measure than has been afforded."

Lord declared that the spending program will be very nearly carried out, "despite legislation and untoward developments that made the task more difficult than was anticipated." It was explained that the soldiers' adjusted compensation measure has added $132,000,000,000 to the problem.

Outlining the accomplishments of the Government since 1921, the last year free from budget control, Lord asserted that, aside from public debt expenses, the proportion of all Government cost was but 28 per cent Federal, while States, cities and towns drew 72 per cent from the taxpayers.

More Than Year.

"If the figures for 1924 were available the difference would be still more startling," Lord added.

In pointing to what the Federal Government has accomplished in the way of retrenchment we intend no reflection upon the States and cities of this country. We do, however, wish to show what united effort in a common patriotic purpose can accomplish.

Lord said that the executive departments of the Government had outlined a spending program of $4,383,274,092 for 1922, adding that a wave of economy, operating through the new Budget Bureau, cut the costs for 1922 $1,742,736,189 below those of the year before. The 1923 drive reduced expenditures $263,083,238 below those of 1922.

Huge Reduction.

"The figures for this year, ending June 30, show a reduction of approximately $200,000,000 below those of last year," Lord continued. "We will spend this year $2,000,000,000 less than we took from the Treasury in 1921. In three budget years we have cut the ordinary expenses of Government in half."

Visualizing what the two billion dollars mean, Lord explained.

"Half of the gold coin and bullion in the United States.

"The entire savings of 12,500,000

depositors in the nation's savings banks for a period of twenty months.

"The value of all the motor vehicles produced in the United States in 1922

"It exceeds the amount paid by all the railroads in the United States for five years.

"It is more than twice the value of the cotton crop of 1922 and nearly two and one-half times the value of the country's wheat crop that year."

Permit Tax Cut.

If in the three budget years the financial pruning knife had not lopped $865,617,185 from annual estimates there would have been no tax reduction in 1924, according to Lord.

Notwithstanding tax reduction and curtailment of revenue the public debt has been reduced from $26,554,267,878 in August 1919, to $24,253,854,276, the Budget Director said.

Again referring to State and city expenditures, Lord said that in 1921 Federal expenditures were 59 per cent of the cost of government, while the lesser divisions were responsible for the remaining 41 per cent. Including public-debt expenditures, the Federal Government in 1924 makes an assessment of only 40 per cent on the public purse, while the State and city governments take 60 per cent. The mentioned 28-72 per cent comparison is a truer reflection of the cost of ordinary government, according to the budget head.

Hits "Smaller Units."

He said that public expenditure, taxation and indebtedness of the smaller units, such as States, cities, towns, and counties, has been "mounting higher and higher in a most dangerous and alarming degree."

Credit to Congressional economy was given by Lord. He said, in estimates for 1922, executive agencies asked for $1,812,925,818 more than Congress gave. Estimates for 1923, the first budget year, were $162,523,008 more than the resultant appropriations, while for 1924 estimates exceeded appropriations by $10,088,595.

"In a budget totaling $3,622,125,959 this result is extraordinary," Lord commented.

If a man is troubled with indigestion it is a waste of time to try to convince him that the world is growing better.

Sergeant Narrowly Escapes Great Divide

"Before I ... Karnak I firmly believed I was ready to cross the Great Divide," says C. O. Worthy, civilian foreman of the Quartermaster's warehouse, Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas.

"I had suffered from stomach trouble for ten years, and had gotten so bad off that all the nourishment I could take was a little milk and crackers. Five weeks ago they carried me home from my office and I wasn't able to hit a lick of work until I began taking Karnak.

"Well, this medicine has ended my troubles, built me up twelve pounds, and put me back on the job feeling fine. Everyone is talking about my remarkable recovery, and I feel it a duty to tell others about Karnak."

Karnak is sold in Mexia by Mexia Drug Company. (Adv.)

UNION JACK

"For Mexia, I WILL"

OVER THE TOP TO VICTORY!

"Tears are softening showers which cause the seed of heaven to spring up in the human heart?"—Walter Scott.

Our neighbor and fellow southerner, the Hon. Pat Harrison of Mississippi, sounded the keynote of the Democratic Convention in New York City. His address re-echoed throughout the siege of the three weeks session and has been accepted by the Democrats of all of the states of the Union. That keynote demands clean government. It, therefore, becomes necessary for the voters in Democratic primaries wherever held to cast their ballots in favor of clean men who will serve their country and not themselves alone. To do otherwise would be to break faith with the party and to join with the enemies of this country who would steer our ship of state into the shoals of anarchism and reefs of national disaster.

Forty eight years ago, the cry of the people, the demand of American patriots of all parties and the need of the hour was to rid the nation of misrule, to dethrone graft and greed, and to lift to places of duty, responsibility and honor the highest type of American manhood. With the same conditions existing in our country today as prevailed at that time, it behoves every loyal citizen of Democratic faith to go to the polls Saturday and engage, courageously, conscientiously and intelligently in the battle of ballots then to be waged.

The contest will be waged, not with shot and shell, nor with sword and sabre, not in the midst of bloodshed and carnage nor while bands play and artillery booms. The polls in every voting box and precinct, and county and district in the state will be battle field. There the ballots will fall as softly as the snowflakes from the winter sky but they will come with the force of the thunderbolt to strike terror to the hearts of all enemies of good government and to all candidates who would undermine Constitutional government and who would use public office for private greed and gain rather than for the general weal.

That sacred and solemn event is nearly here.

The welfare of our precinct; the future of our county; the political progress of our Lone Star land, on that occasion, will fall with equal weight upon our lowly and upon our great, upon our citizens of want and upon our people of wealth. The poor will be as powerful as the rich. All will be sovereign citizens of Texas on that occasion and each man and woman who advances to the polls at that time, for that day at least, will be public officials, serving their state in the capacities of every office for which they cast a vote, from constable to governor.

Let us advance calmly and without fear. Let us remember that more battles are won by love than by hate. Let us place a bar on intolerance no matter how gaudy may be her decorations. Let us place our country first and when the day then is done there will come into our souls, like sweet music from an invisible angelic host, that knowledge that we have done our best and our God will do the rest.

Democrats, forward march!

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

CITIZENSHIP

A compilation of statistics by Collier's Weekly, shows that:

In 1896, 80 per cent of voters cast ballots.
In 1900, 73 per cent.
In 1908, 66 per cent.
In 1912, 62 per cent.
In 1920, less than 50 per cent.
What will be the showing in 1924?

Reasons for the steadily decreasing interest of the electorate in their right and duty are as varied as their sources. The increase of the vote through woman suffrage, the dissatisfaction of voters with the alleged decadence of parties and the supposed fact that one party is much like another, too great an increase in foreign born population, are all suggested.

A fourth, which has some appeal to logic to recommend it, is the failure of the electorate to understand "what it is all about." In other words, the complexity of the problems involved makes a choice of candidate or party so difficult that the mental laziness which is apparently an inherent part of the majority of minds takes charge and prevents any vote, rather than endure the discomfort of thinking out which candidate to vote for.

If this last suggested reason is correct, November should show a surprising increase over previous years in percentage of votes cast. It is true that there is no such issue before the public this year as, for instance, in 1896; there is no such sharp differentiation between the platforms of the two major parties as might cause such an increase in votes. But there is the radio; millions listened with absorbing interest to the proceedings at Cleveland and New York to whom, hitherto, a convention was merely an incident in the day's news. Those millions have been educated at first hand. They know "what it is all about." They heard the statesmen, the politicians and the "wheel horses" of the great parties talk. And then, following a universal human curiosity, they turned to the newspapers the next day to read again what they had heard the night before!

If, as is believed, a record vote is polled this November, the reason may be found in that which is fundamental to all citizenship: education!

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. 4.

I have now served you as Constable of your precinct for about 1½ years. The time has come when you must make a choice between my opponent and myself for this office for the next two years. During the term of my incumbency I have endeavored to the best of my ability to faithfully discharge the duties of this important office, and if favored by you in the coming election to be held on the 26th instant. I will continue in the same loyal and impartial way to perform the work and discharge the trust confided to me. The urge of official duties combined with the care of a sick wife, has prevented me from making a personal campaign and I must trust largely to my friends to look after my interests from now until election day. I do not feel that it is necessary to personally recommend myself to your consideration, for I have lived in midst for the past 35 years and my life is an open book which all who run may read. My family is known to all the old timers and I am widely related in and about Mexia. I shall be glad to confer with any or all of my friends who may be interested in my candidacy, or to answer any questions which they may want to ask. I am aware that some of the duties of the office are difficult and I have been called upon to do some unpleasant things, but I do think all will agree that I have performed my duties heretofore without fear or favor, and if elected will strive in future to do the same.

Please think the matter over and do the best you can for me all day next Saturday. I leave the matter to your consciences.

Respectfully,
JOE P. FELZ,
Constable Precinct 4.

Prim Prest.

STYLE HINTS

By ALICE LANGEIER
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, July 24—Handbag harmony is the order of the day. A jarring bag may ruin a chic woman's whole appearance.

Nothing is stable in the fashion world. Bags change as often as gowns. After being small and inconspicuous for several years, bags are now much larger, so large, in fact, as to resemble small-sized suitcases. These larger ones are flat and envelope shape, the pochette type with a strap going round and ending up with a buckle. One shop is showing a striking one in seal of dark tone blended with lizard, which is, perhaps, the favorite of the season. Sometimes it comes dyed a delicate jade green, turquoise blue, or rust and chestnut shades. It is now the vogue to order extra skins from the bootmaker in order to have enough for the bag to match the shoe. For to be really chic, the bag must either match or blend harmoniously with the shoes and costume.

As in everything else, gorgeous colors are prevailing—turkey reds and turquoise blues, together with a delightful new rose tint. Bags of brilliant colored enamels are enticing many women, but embroidered models are probably the most popular. They come exquisitely worked in point de Beauvais and Alencon lace, dull tapestry effects and brighter ones. A charming one noticed at the Ritz tea last Friday was in white satin, embroidered in gold-colored silk, and another in gray silk, embroidered in finely shaded flowers in pearl shades.

André is showing some fastidious vanity cases in an endless and surprising variety, just large enough to contain vanity fittings, a tiny hand-kerchief and a bit o' pocket change. And there are several Russian shops making delightful woven affairs, with gay Russian embroideries. They are made by the Russian refugees, poorer royalties, who are trying to eke out an existence in friendly Paris.

WHOLE BASEBALL TEAM AT "SECRET" WEDDING

(By International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 24—Joe Hauser, the hard-hitting first baseman of Connie Mack's Athletics, had his wedding all planned and it was going to be on the "Q. T."

But when he and Miss Irene Kaye of Milwaukee, arrived at the Church of the Seven Dolors, Waymoor, for the ceremony, they found there had been a leak somewhere and every member of the American League team was on hand. But a good time was had by all.

AN OLD EYE SORE MOVED AT LAST

HILL COUNTY TO HAVE TEST TO WOODBINE DEPTHS

Jeff Meers, well known geologist of this section, announces that a wildcat oil operation is to begin soon 3½ miles south of Hubbard in Hill County. The location is just across the line from Limestone county.

According to present plans, the test will spud in Monday, July 28.

About 4,000 acres have been blocked for the test.

The Woodbine sand is expected to be reached at a depth of around 1700 feet.

Quite a number of companies are reported as being interested in the section, some of which have secured tracts already while others are sending scouts to the area.

Mr. Meers has spent several months in studying the territory carefully and in going over the section. The location is on the Nathan 100 acre farm, 455 feet south of the north line in the Copeland survey.

Federal Government To Foster Cotton Classification

AUSTIN, Texas, July 24.—Plans are under way by the federal government for improving the local cotton market by shortening the distance from producer to consumer, and to improve the system of classification of cotton.

Dr. A. B. Cox, of Washington, D. C. who is in charge of research work in this field, points out that the average farmer knows very little about cotton classification, but must depend entirely on the grades placed on the cotton by large firms. It may mean much to the farmer, Dr. Cox said, if the federal government can assure him that classification is uniformly correct in every respect. To further this work, Dr. Cox has recently studied cotton conditions in California, Oklahoma, and several other cotton producing states, and is now enroute to Rio Grande Valley. His "territory" includes 15 cotton producing states.

HARVEST BULLETIN NO. 7

The harvest in the Big Wheat Belt has progressed through most of Nebraska where cutting is drawing to a close and threshing has started. Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and Nebraska harvested this year in round numbers 22 million acres of wheat, producing approximately 75 per cent of the winter wheat of the United States. More than 70,000 outside laborers have been required to care for this crop. The supply of labor has been adequate although there have been moments of anxiety and to meet the needs for men to distribute them equitably has taxed this organization to the limit. County agricultural agents, state and federal labor officials, Chambers of Commerce, bankers, business and farmer organizations in the wheat districts have given to the Farm Labor Division the fullest co-operation.

The small grain harvest will start the latter part of this week in the Spring wheat states. Sioux City, Iowa is the gateway to the Dakotas and harvest laborers should go to the permanent branch office in the City Hall, Sioux City, for information and direction.

South Dakota.

Harvesting in South Dakota will start in the Southeastern districts about July 25 to 28. This state has about 6,000,000 acres of Spring wheat, oats, barley and rye. The condition of the crops is better than last year and several thousand men will be required to harvest the small grain crops.

Special Agents of this service are now stationed at Sioux Falls, Mitchell, Huron, Redfield, Watertown and Aberdeen. Temporary Field Headquarters of the Farm Labor Division will be opened at Aberdeen, July 21st.

North Dakota.

While the harvest acreage of Spring wheat in this state will be about 1,000,000 acres less than last year, the July estimate indicates a production of about 15,000,000 bushels more than in 1928; an average of 7,436,000. The wheat, oats and barley to be harvested in North Dakota totals more than 11,000,000 acres. The rye harvest in North Dakota will start about July 25th and the cutting of rye will begin the first week of August.

Thousands of harvest hands will be required and the drift at this time to Dakotas from the Southern fields is heavy. This Service does not anticipate any shortage of labor for the Dakotas. This Service, co-operating closely with the State Labor Commission and the County Agents of North Dakota, will have Special Agents stationed at Oakes, Fargo, Grand Forks, Jamestown, Devils Lake, Minot, Bismarck, Williston, and at other important distributing centers if needed. These offices will be opened within a few days. Temporary Field Headquarters will be maintained at the Public Employment Office at Fargo.

Montana.

Montana's prospect for a good wheat crop is favorable. This state has 5,500,000 acres of Spring and Winter wheat and several thousand men from the outside will be needed to care for the crop.

The Farm Labor Division will maintain offices for the distribution of labor at Bismarck, Miles City, Billings, Great Falls, and such other points as may seem desirable. All offices in the Dakotas will have full information at all times as to the needs of Montana and frequent announcements will be issued to State and Federal and to Special and County Agents.

Idaho.

Idaho will harvest about 1,000,000 acres of wheat. The hot dry weather has already started the harvest in Idaho. South Central Idaho's crop has been cut short by frosts and dry weather and no large labor demands are expected in the state. The heaviest labor demand will come from South Central section about August 1st, but the drift at the present time is good and no shortage is anticipated.

A Special Agent of the Farm Labor Division is stationed at Pocatello. Harvest inquiries will receive information and direction by applying to this office.

Oregon.

Oregon has a little over 1,000,000 acres of wheat, the heaviest acreage lying in the Northeastern quarter of the state. The harvest is now on in Oregon and sufficient labor has been recruited to meet the needs. It is unwise for laborers of other states to go to Washington for work in the harvest.

A permanent branch office of the Farm Labor Division is located at 201 Trent Avenue, Spokane. This office is headquarters for Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Special Agents are stationed at Walla Walla, Colfax and Seattle and applicants to these offices will receive information and direction as to labor needs of these states.

Announcements will be issued at frequent intervals giving the progress of the harvest for the Dakotas, Montana and the Northwest.

Just tell your phone operator to get The News office at Mexia, collect. The less delay, the better the public will be served.

An efficient corps of tabulators will be on duty at The News office and results will be given to the public Saturday night both by bulletins posted near the entrance to the circulation department of the News office, at the Anderson and Horn drug store corner, and in the paper bearing Sunday morning date line.

The News will also give returns of the State election.

The co-operation of the county is urged and in return the voters of the county are invited to be in Mexia Saturday night to get the returns immediately and in more complete form than to be secured elsewhere in the county.

FORT WORTH, July 21.—Coats for men!

Imagine a stalwart Texan with their moccasins charged by contractions of steel and canvas!

That's what we can expect, according to P. G. Pfleuger, haberdasher. Pfleuger, who insists he isn't joking, says the men in Paris are already wearing coats, and since Paris fashions usually arrive down here about a year later, he predicts that 1925 will see Texas males donning coats each morning.

These clothing coats and vests are coming too, Pfleuger says. Trouser's waist is so tight as the upper garments.

D. OLIVER SUFFERS
STRONG OF PARALYSIS

D. Oliver of Groesbeck, well known citizen of this county, suffered a stroke of paralysis Tuesday afternoon. He was unconscious during the night but was reported some better Wednesday. His many friends hope for his early and complete recovery.

Dear Voter:

You are about to employ a county school superintendent for the ensuing two years. My life's work, thus far, has been finding and solving the problems of the rural school. I did my teacher-training work at Sam Houston Normal and Bachelor of Science work at A. & M. College. I have spent eighteen years teaching in the rural schools of Limestone county and ask you to promote me to the superintendency of the schools of which I am familiar.

Assuring you that I shall appreciate this promotion, I am,

Cordially yours,
J. J. BATES.

IRA LAWLEY SPEAKS AT OLD SPRINGFIELD

Lawyers Cost County $22,153.48
Last Year. Elect County Attorney Who Will Do This Work and Save County $15,000.
Per Year.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

It affords me pleasure to be at Springfield this (July 17) morning and to discuss with you the legal duties of the persons who will elect and have elected to serve as your County Attorney. In this discussion I will not speak disrespectfully of any person or thing, and it is not my purpose to impeach the integrity of any person, but to simply submit to you the unimpeachable records of Limestone County, which speak for themselves and cannot be contradicted and I submit these records for your consideration. I will also limit my discussion and remarks to the legal duties of a county attorney, to the official record of the present county attorney who asks to be re-elected, to the failure of the present county attorney to perform certain mandatory official duties and the consequent cost of this neglect to the county for the year 1923, from Jan. 1, to Dec. 31, 1923, inclusive, which was the first year of the administration of the present county attorney.

The county attorney is your agent or official, and he is responsible to you for what he does, and as long as he acts as your agent or official, you are responsible and bound by his acts.

I will proceed to discuss the law applicable to the duties of the county attorney and the official record as made by your present county attorney, which is public property and same will be found recorded among the various public records of this county.

Under the State Constitution, the laws of Texas, and the decisions of the higher courts of this State, the official duties of the county attorney are as follows:

(1) He is the lawyer for, and the legal advisor of all the county and precinct officers. (Article 359a of the Revised Civil Laws of Texas.)

(2) He is lawyer and legal representative for the county and it is his official duty to represent the State and county in all District Courts and all inferior Courts. (See Section 21, of Article V, of the Constitution of Texas.)—and cases in mandatory.

(3) It is his mandatory legal duty to file suits for the collection of delinquent taxes before the 1st day of June of each year. (See Article 420c and 120d of the Criminal Laws of Texas.)

I will now present a discussion of these duties in the order just stated:

1. He is the lawyer for and the legal advisor of all the county and precinct officers. There is also a corresponding duty of all county and precinct officers to take and abide by the advice of the county attorney and the advice of the county attorney should go in the official acts and conduct of the various officers, for the people have elected a county attorney to keep the officials posted upon the law.

If the county attorney is not qualified, or not willing or neglects to keep the officials of the county posted upon the law he is not entitled to be permitted to continue in office and draw pay to perform duties he does not or cannot perform.

2. He is the lawyer and legal representative of and for the county, and it is his official duty to represent the State and county in all District Courts and all inferior Courts.

In connection with this duty he should keep himself posted as to when and where the State and County needs to be represented by a lawyer, and it he is negligent and does not keep himself posted as to the necessity of representing the State and county in all district courts and inferior courts, or if he is not qualified to represent the State and county in all district courts and all inferior courts he is not entitled to be re-elected and continued in office and permitted to draw the salary allowed by law to perform his neglects or is not qualified to perform.

During the year 1923 the Western Oil Field Corporation brought suit against Limestone County in U. S. District Court in an effort to get out of paying the just and honest taxes due to said corporation to Limestone County in the sum of $12,661.58. Lawsuits were employed in this case at an additional expense to Limestone County in the sum of $4,000.00. This case was compromised without a legal contract for $20,500.00, which was less than 50% of the taxes due the county by said corporation. Limestone County paid $2,000.00 of the $1,000.00 lawyer fee and for a correspondence in taxes, the Western Oil Field Corporation paid $2,000.00 of the $1,000.00 lawyer fee and the cost of filing the suit, which was less than $300.00. In and to the settlement of this case Limestone County lost in failing to collect taxes about $20,500.00 and the amount was lost regardless of the fact that the $1,000.00 and taxable values placed upon your property for taxable purposes. It was the legal duty of the county attorney to represent the county in this case without any additional expense for lawyers to the county save and except the salary allowed the county attorney by law and that of the legally appointed deputies of the county attorney. In the same year the Magnolia Petroleum Company brought suit against Limestone County in the same court in an effort to get out of paying the just and honest taxes due by said company to Limestone County in the sum of $81,059.04. Lawyers were employed in this case at an additional expense of $5,000.00. This case was compromised without a legal contract for $30,000.00 which was less than 75% of the taxes due the county. In addition to the $30,000.00, the Magnolia Petroleum Company paid the lawyers who represented the county the $5,000.00 lawyer fee for a corresponding reduction in taxes, and all cost of filing the suit, which was less than $20,000.00. In and by the settlement of this case Limestone County lost in taxes about $20,000.00 and this amount was lost regardless of the facts that the $81,059.04 and the taxable values placed upon the property assessed for taxes had been approved by the board of equalization of Limestone County as being a fair and reasonable taxable value to be placed upon the property of said company just like your values are placed upon your property for taxable purposes. It was the legal duty of the county attorney to represent the county in this case without any additional expense for lawyers to the county save and except the salary allowed the county attorney by law and that of the legally appointed deputies of the county attorney. I received a fee of $2,000.00 in this case being employed, not by the county, but by the lawyer who had already been employed by the county. I wrote the answer in this case by myself. The answer and the exhibits attached thereto contained 53 large typewritten pages. It is on file in United States District Court at Waco and I would like for you to go to Waco and compare the answer I filed in this case with the answer I filed in the other case. I also got together and briefed all the law in the case and there is no doubt in my mind but what all of the $81,059.04 could have been collected had the suit been prosecuted to judgment. Before I wrote and filed the answer in this case I heard it frequently said that the case would be settled for 40% or 50% of the $81,059.04, but I am egotistical enough to believe that my efforts and the efforts of your tax assessor raised this settlement to 50% thereby netting to Limestone County over the basis of percentage for which the other case was settled about $25,000.00.

This is a little out of line, but while here, I will say that since the present county attorney has been in office I have represented some of the officials of the county in three other suits, in two of which I donated my services to the officials and county and did not receive any money for my services and paid my own expenses. I won one of the two cases, and the other one is pending in the Supreme court, I received a $75.00 fee, in the third case which was the case of H. J. Walton vs Limestone County and Boyett & Sherman. In this suit, Mr. Walton sought to recover from Limestone County and Boyett & Sherman $3,000.00. I believe the suit for Limestone County. As a result of my labor Mr. Walton did not recover one penny from the county and the county was at no other expense in this law suit save and except $75.00 paid to me. It was the official duty of the county attorney to represent Limestone County and the officials in all of these suits.

3. It is the county attorney's mandatory legal duty to file suits for the collection of delinquent taxes before the 1st day of June of each year. In discussing this duty and to enable you to know the law pertaining to this duty, I will quote from Article 120c and 120d of the Criminal Laws of Texas which are section 3 to 4 of Chapter 117, page 232 of the Acts of the 41st Legislature as follows:

Sec. 3.  Not later than June 1 of each year  it shall be the duty of the county attorney, or the district attorney if he be the county attorney to file and institute suit as otherwise provided by law for the collection of all delinquent taxes due at the time of filing such suit on land or lots situated in such county, together with interest, penalties and costs then due as otherwise provided by law.

See 4, of the same Act. "The duties prescribed in this Act for the county tax collector, county and district attorney, and the other officers of State and county, are hereby declared to be ministerial and shall not be construed as merely advisory, and any county or state official who shall fail or refuse to perform the duties herein set out for him to perform shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in any sum not less than $100.00, but not more than $100.00, and in addition thereto, shall be subject to removal from office; ***"

I have agreed for taxes due to the county and shall be approved by the board of equalization of Limestone County it is the official and legal duty to file suit for the collection of delinquent taxes before the 1st day of June of each year, and if he refuses, fails or neglects to do so that he should be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than a $1000.00, and removed from office.

However, the acts of the 3rd Called Session of the 38th Legislature, page 184, provides as follows:

"Whenever the Commissioners' Court of any county after thirty days written notice to the county attorney or district attorney to file delinquent tax suits and his (County Attorney's) failure so to do, shall deem it necessary or expedient, said court may contract with any competent attorney to enforce or assist in the enforcement of the collection of any delinquent state and county taxes for a per cent on the taxes, penalty and interest actually collected."

You will notice that the county attorney must first fail to perform his legal and official duty and thereby violate his oath of office before the Commissioners' Court is authorized to contract with a lawyer to file suit to collect delinquent taxes, and if the county attorney should or does fail to file suit to collect said taxes, he is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than $1000.00 and in addition thereto subject to being removed from office.

Why does the law provide that the county attorney fail, refuse or neglect to perform the official duty and legal duty of filing suit to collect delinquent taxes he shall be removed from office. It is not because, the law intended that he should do this work without additional cost to the people and tax payers of the county, and shall he fail to perform his duties imposed by law that he should be removed from office so an official could be appointed or elected who would perform said official duties.

In the face of these laws, in disservice to them and in disregard of them, and by violating his oath of office, your present county attorney failed, refused and neglected to file any suits for the collection of delinquent taxes before June 1, 1923, and after members of the Commissioners' Court had requested him on several occasions to proceed to file said suits, he failed and neglected to do so. He could not give as a reason for his failure to file these suits that he had been too busy, for the records of the county court show that he has only tried about 13 criminal cases since he has been in office, and 5 of them were found guilty. I hold in my hand a certificate signed and sealed officially by the county clerk of this county which states, "that since January 1, 1923, only thirteen criminal cases have been tried in the county court of Limestone County."

"On August 18, 1923, over two and one-half months had passed after time fixed by law in which to file delinquent tax suits he advised the Commissioners' Court to make a contract with one certain outside lawyer other than the county attorney or the assistant county attorney; and he advised the court that he would not work with any other lawyer, and if this lawyer was not employed, he would make no attempt to file suit to collect delinquent taxes. The order passed by the Commissioners' Court on August 18, 1923, at the request of your present county attorney which is record in Book I, page 268, of the Minutes of the Commissioners' Court of this county is as follows:

"Moved and seconded upon the recommendation of the county attorney that L. W. Sheppard be, and is hereby employed, to assist the county attorney in bringing suit and collection of all delinquent taxes now due and owing to the county of Limestone and State of Texas as shown by the records of the tax collector of Limestone County, Texas, including taxes on real and personal property and that the said L. W. Sheppard be paid as compensation for such services the sum of ten per cent of the amount of such delinquent taxes, interest and penalties paid and collected, said amount to be paid by the tax collector of Limestone County as collected; And the tax collector of Limestone County is hereby ordered and directed to pay to the said L. W. Sheppard on the 1st day of each month the said sum of ten per cent of such taxes, interest and penalties so paid and collected from and after Sept. 1, 1923, when duly authorized by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. It is hereby ordered that such employment shall be in full force and effect on and after Sept. 1, 1923."

The Comptroller did not join in this contract or authorize ten per cent of delinquent taxes due the State to be paid to Mr. Sheppard, because the Attorney General in his opinion No. 2334 held that such a contract was illegal and unenforceable. Write to the Attorney General and get a copy of his opinion No. 234. I have a copy of it here in my hand.

This contract of employment does not give to L. W. Sheppard ten per cent of the amount of delinquent taxes actually collected by him as the law says, but it gives to him ten per cent of all delinquent taxes, interest and penalties due Limestone County on Aug. 18, 1923, and that ten per cent of all delinquent taxes, interest and penalties paid to the tax collector or collected by the tax collector shall be paid to L. W. Sheppard by the tax collector on the first of each month after September 1st, 1923. There is no measure of labor or work set out in the contract for L. W. Sheppard to perform before he is entitled to the ten per cent, and all that is necessary for him to do is to call on the tax collector about the first of each month and get ten per cent of all the delinquent taxes, interest and penalties that have been paid to the tax collector or collected by the tax collector during the month.

For the last four months of 1923; viz; September, October, November and December that contract which was made upon the recommendation of the county attorney cost Limestone County $7,608.53, or an average of $1,902.13 per month for the first four months of its existence. I do not know what it has cost the county for the six and one half months of the year 1924, but the records disclose the amount and the cost is mounting up each month.

Why did your county attorney neglect and fail to perform his official duty, violate his oath of office before the Commissioners' Court to make a contract with a certain lawyer to perform the official duties the county attorney under the law was required to perform under punishment of a fine of not less than $100.00 and not more than a $1000.00 and in addition thereto subjecting himself to being removed from office.

I will tell you why. There was a contract of a silent nature which was supposed not to become known to the people of the county made between your county attorney Scott Reed, your assistant county attorney Carl Cannon and the lawyer named in the contract made by the Commissioners' Court whereby your assistant county attorney Carl Cannon was to receive an additional monthly donation for what little services he did each month and after the assistant county attorney got his monthly donation, which donation was in addition to his salary of $150.00 per month for his services as assistant county attorney, which was the maximum salary that could be paid him under the law, the balance was to be divided between your county attorney Scott Reed and the lawyer named in the order of the Commissioners' Court, employing a lawyer to assist the county attorney.

During the month of September 1923 or the first month of the contract, this contract cost Limestone County in four months $4,901.80 of it was paid out of funds that belonged in the Road Funds of the County; $2,998.91 was paid out of funds that belonged in the General

Funds, $607.16 was paid out of funds that belonged in the Independent School Funds, and 76 cents was paid out of funds that belonged to the Independent School Fund.

There can be no justification for making such an expensive contract giving as a reason therefore that the taxes due were bad debts, because the State and County has a constitutional lien upon the property assessed for the taxes and there is no way to beat payment of taxes, if your officers will do their duty, and almost as sure as time rolls round, they will have to be paid, and as long as the taxes are unpaid they are interest which make them a source of revenue instead of bad debts. Do I any of you people ever pay taxes to your state and county? No, and you never will.

Mr. Reed as a justification of this contract, let me say nothing about the split and kick-back features, says that $21,000.00 was offered under it. This is not a fact, about $2,000.00 in kick-backs have been paid to and collected by the tax collector, since the contract became operative, but about $11,000.00 of this amount was voluntarily paid to the tax collector without being called for collection of same. There was only $1,000.00 of it as fully collected by suit or as a result of suit during the month of September, October, November and December, about $11,000.00 was offered under it. You may see this check by calling at the tax collector's office and asking for permission to see it. Your assistant county attorney Carl Cannon rec'd. $150.00 per month.

"Telephone rent and tolls. $182.75" "Telephone expense at Mexia and table. $ 12.50" "One Pemco Typewriter $ 75.00" "Stamp, stationery, etc. . . . $ 100.00" "Traveling expense, attending Justice Court, making investigations, etc. $ 150.00" "Total expense $ 5541.85"

Stop and figure upon the telephone expense. Telephone rent in Groesbeck is $3.00 per month or $36 per year. Now take $36.00 from the total of the two telephone items and see what you have left. For what did he spend it? Take the stamp, stationery, etc, item of $100.00 and doesn't it look considerably large for an official in the County Attorney's office? Take the traveling expense attending Justice Courts, making investigations, etc, item of $150.00 and doesn't it appear a little large for the County Attorney's office to pay $10.00 per day for your office? The trouble in going to and returning from Groesbeck.

Mr. Reed as a justification of this contract, let me say nothing about the split and kick-back features, says that $21,000.00 was offered under it. This is not a fact, about $2,000.00 in kick-backs have been paid to and collected by the tax collector, since the contract became operative, but about $11,000.00 of this amount was voluntarily paid to the tax collector without being called for collection of same. There was only $1,000.00 of it as fully collected by suit or as a result of suit during the month of September, October, November and December, about $11,000.00 was offered under it. You may see this check by calling at the tax collector's office and asking for permission to see it. Your assistant county attorney Carl Cannon rec'd. $150.00 per month.

There can be no justification for making such an expensive contract giving as a reason therefore that the taxes due were bad debts, because the State and County has a constitutional lien upon the property assessed for the taxes and there is no way to beat payment of taxes, if your officers will do their duty, and almost as sure as time rolls round, they will have to be paid, and as long as the taxes are unpaid they are interest which make them a source of revenue instead of bad debts. Do I any of you people ever pay taxes to your state and county? No, and you never will.

At this rate of expenditure per year for legal services, figure what Mr. Reed's two years in office will cost the people and tax payers of Limestone County and if you wish to endorse Mr. Reed's inattention to the legal matters of Limestone County and elect him to office for two more years, figure what four years of his services in any case which he is required by law to prosecute, either before or after such case has been tried and finally determined.

The lawyer fee paid directly and indirectly in the Western Oil Fields Corporation case $4,000.00 Lawyer's fee paid directly and indirectly in the Magnolia Petroleum Co. Case $5,000.00 Lawyer's fee paid for the last four months of the year 1923, under the split and kick-back contract made under the advice and recommendation of the County Attorney $27,608.83 Salaries and expenses as shown by the annual account of the County Attorney for year 1923 $5,544.85

Total expense for lawyers for 1923 $22,153.48

The County Attorney could have easily performed all the legal service Limestone County received during the year 1923 at the enormous cost of $22,153.48 for the legal salary of $3650.00 allowed by law, thus saving for Limestone County $18,503.48 in one year. It was the official and legal duty of the County Attorney to perform these services and if on account of negligence or inability he failed to perform the legal and official duties of the County Attorney's office at such an enormous cost to the county he is not entitled to be re-elected.

At this rate of expenditure per year for legal services, figure what Mr. Reed's two years in office will cost the people and tax payers of Limestone County and if you wish to endorse Mr. Reed's inattention to the legal matters of Limestone County and elect him to office for two more years, figure what four years of his services in any case which he is required by law to prosecute, either before or after such case has been tried and finally determined.

If there is any man or woman who doubts or questions the truth or correctness of any statement or statements I have made in this discussion I will take each and all of you to the Courthouse at Groesbeck and I will point out to you the records in the various offices of the county that will substantiate all that I have said. You may go to Groesbeck by yourself and try to find the records from which I have quoted but unless you know where they are and how to get hold of them they will be hard for you to find, and if you see fit to go there by yourself, you may strike up with some friend of Mr. Reed that is working in some part of the Courthouse and doing all he can to help Mr. Reed be re-elected, who will throw cold water upon these statements I have made and say that he has never heard of such facts, that he knows nothing about them or the record, or that it is mud, etc. You know Mr. Reed is an official of the County and offices in the Courthouse (I don't) and no official of the county be they official or assistant of an official will court the ill will or disfavor of Mr. Reed by assisting or helping to expose to the observation of the public the official record of Mr. Reed. There fore, I again ask of you that if there is any doubt in your mind as to the correctness of any statement or statements I have made or of said statements being true, come and go with me to the Courthouse at Groesbeck and I will point out to you the records that will substantiate, corroborate and verify every statement I have made, and if I can't do it I will pay you $10.00 per day for your office? MILLION SPENT ON MILL

TO BE RUN BY ELECTRICITY

(By International News Service) HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 24.—Over a million dollars worth of electrical equipment has been ordered for a structural steel mill now being constructed here.

This electrically-operated mill will replace a steam-driven mill which has been declared obsolete.

PIMPLES AND BUMPS
ARE AWFUL PESTS

Girls and women of the most even dispositions are quick to resent direct attacks on their character, or bold advances. But it is hardly explainable why these same folks tolerate disfiguring pimpls, blotches, bumps, "breaking out," etc., which are even worse pests than that.

These skin diseases quit annoying people quickly after first few applications of the wonderful Black and White Ointment, and the regular use of Black and White Soap. The cost is so small none need hesitate because they "can't afford it." The 50c size of the Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 35c size. All dealers have both Black and White Soap, and Ointment. (Adv.)

TOM M. CAIN
For Tax Assessor

The Tax Assessor deals with every man's property in this county. He must know something of every school district and every road district in this county. Upon his knowledge of lots, blocks, surveys, and the like, depends the correctness of the rendition of 50 million dollars worth of property, including yours.

In this important office you should have a man who has not only been honest and clean all his life, but one who by training and qualifications is fitted to give you good service.

I claim to have the requirements named above and if I do not I am unworthy of your support. My four years experience as Tax Assessor has familiarized me with every duty incumbent upon that office.

Every bank in this county uses trained and experienced men in its most important places. No wholesale house will use a traveling salesman to call on its best customers unless such sales man has had previous training in selling goods.

Every school board in the county demands of its teachers certain qualifications, training and experience. All successful businesses use their trained and experienced men in their most responsible places. Don't that seem a sound business policy to you?

Investigate the character and qualifications of the men offering and vote your best judgment for the good of your country. It is a business proposition with me. I want the office for the money it pays. I ask you to register, we already have a Cadillac and don't want two, sacrifice price —vote for the best man. When you do this and see Rhodes Bro. you have done that, you have done your whole duty and shall be satisfied.

IMPORTANT OIL FIELD

JOHNSON WAKEFIELD
Candidate For Judge Limestone County Court

I am a candidate for the office of County Judge of Limestone County Court, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the Democratic Primaries Saturday, July 26, 1924.

I have always been a Democrat and have supported its nominees in every election and believe in the enforcement of all laws, and this includes the prohibition laws as well as all others. I believe in good schools, good churches, good roads, good government and happy homes. I am opposed to waste or extravagance in any public office and if I am elected, I will conduct the office in a clean, faithful, and business like way and in such a manner that it will reflect credit on Limestone County.

I am 47 years of age and have been a Limestone resident and citizen continuously since 1892, 16 years of which I taught in the public school system of the county. For the past three years and a half I have served as clerk of the district court, efficiently and faithfully, and now I am asking that the people promote me to the office of the County Judge where I will have greater opportunities for service to my fellow citizens and to our great county.

I invite your most careful investigation of my record as a public official and as a private citizen, and if you find me worthy, I will thank you for your support.

BIBLE DISTRIBUTION

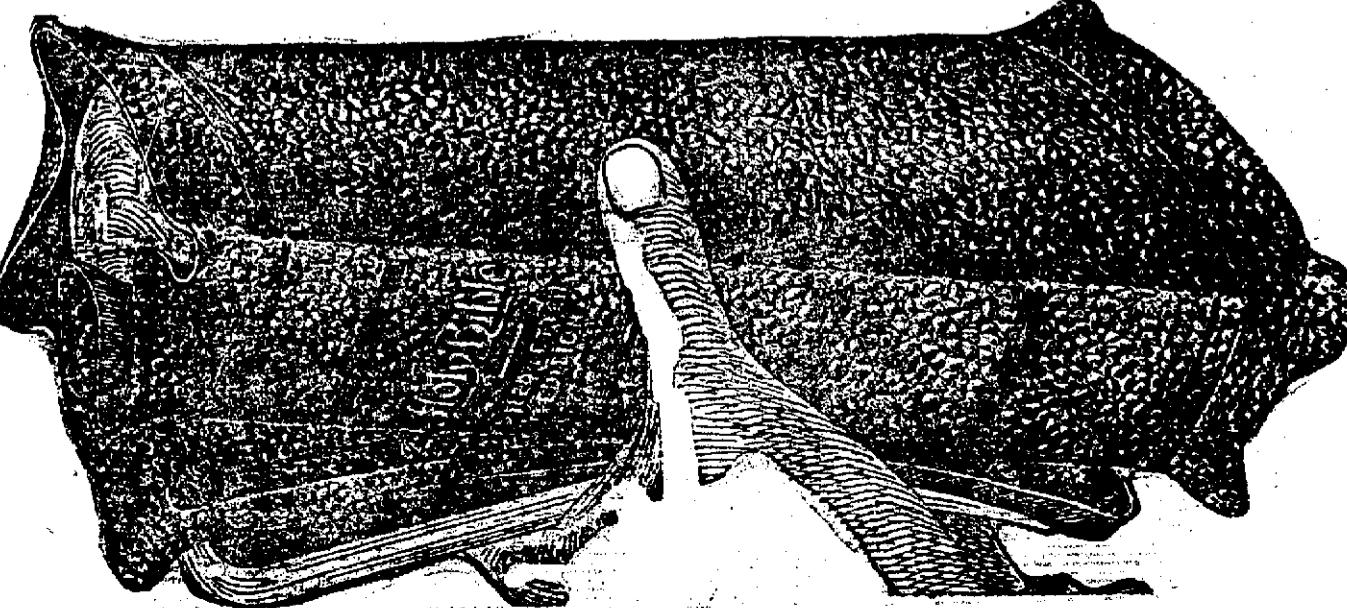

Following the most distressing period of unrest the world has ever known, comes a world-wide revival of Bible reading, which must tend to ameliorate the unrestful conditions of mankind. To encourage such an end, leading newspapers throughout this country have joined forces to promote the distribution of the great Book of Books, and have adopted a plan that should readily place the Bible in the hands of every reader. Two exclusive editions have been chosen for this purpose—first, the famous large print Red Letter Bible, illustrated herein, and a beautiful plain print, medium large type edition that will be distributed for a nominal sum by the News Publishing Co.

CAMPAIGN ISSUES ARE AS VARIED AS EMOTIONS OF MEN

The political campaign in this state is waxing warm. In Limestone and Fimestone counties it is particularly hot. The political pot is boiling.

This situation is due largely to local affairs. Each county has its own records. These please one side and displease another generally speaking.

In Limestone county, the issues carried to the people are as checkerboard as human emotions. In the southern part of the county, especially, several candidates, refusing to stand on the Democratic party platform as recently written by Democrats from every state in the Union in New York, are doing their utmost to inject the notorious issue into the party by a fight with the Ku Klux Klan. Such a policy is being denounced by both non-Klan and Klan alike by men who know that the interest of the party is higher than any particular office and any legislation from the platform principles which grow on the injection of the Klan issue, will jeopardize party welfare and is contrary to the spirit which is one of the cornerstones held by the party.

Where it is popular to do so, also an attack is being made upon Mexia, to note the fact that no citizen of Mexia has been honored with public office in Limestone County within the last eight years.

In the future the end of the election will be the element that is fightable and representatives of that element are working day and night in Limestone's influence voters whom he probably abhors the day before to join the wet forces in the county by working in behalf of their own candidate and although many are in doubt the prohibition question has been settled in this country, throughout the country, by a vote of friends of the liquor, to indicate that everything is being done to extirpate the whiskey kingdom.

The enormous expenditure of public money and tax money for the construction of a county court house, among the expense of the people who vote for public improvements, has caused general indignation all over Limestone and this will be one of the most important issues by which ballots will determine Saturday.

Also opposition is expressed against the employment of attorneys outside the County and District Attorneys' office at great cost, to represent Limestone County. This criticism has not concerned any one particular attorney, but against several in the election and others, outside who are elected as members of a group that is alleged to be its utmost to control the affairs of the county.

The so-called "ring" is also being attacked and at the same time friends are rallying to it and siding it in being a factor in the campaign.

Not much hard feeling has been expressed, on far, very openly. Fighting on both sides has been carried on in the spirit of good humor generally.

Friends are dividing on many of the candidates, but still retaining their friendships for one another, as they should. The battle will be waged seriously Saturday. Every citizen is urged to keep cool, to the end that the right thing may be done.

And when its all over but the shouting, the citizenship of the county will return to the even tenor of their ways and leave the matter of government largely to the machinery of government, to our Judiciary, to our Grand Juries, to our Commissioners Court and to those entrusted to public office. May the best men and women win.

Fellow Students
Called In Trial of Wealthy Boys

CHICAGO, July 24.—Fellow students of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, when the confessed murderers of 14 year old Robert Franks, attended the University of Chicago, were called by the state today in an attempt to draw the noose tighter.

The students will testify to the ly about the necks of their erstwhile friends and companions.

Howard Obendorf, Lester Abelson, Maurice Shamborg and Arnold Marmont—and possibly other students—will take the witness stand before Judge John R. Caverly, who is sitting as judge and jury in the hearing of evidence to determine whether Leopold and Loeb shall hang or go to jail.

The students will testify to the that Leopold owned a portable typewriter like the one on which the $10,000 "ransom letter" was written. They also may be asked to testify that the young murderers were "rational and sane in their college life."

State's Attorney Crowe, who is making rapid headway in presenting his case, largely because Chief Defense Counsel Clarence Darrow does not bother to contest the State's testimony and waives cross-examination.

Among other witnesses to be called by Crowe today was Albert Hubbard, a hardware dealer, who will tell of selling a camel and a rope to a man resembling Richard Loeb. He probably will fail to make absolute identification of young Loeb, Crowe admitted. A tape-bound chisel was used in striking the Franks boy on the head—the blow which ended his life. A rope was taken along for emergencies but apparently was not used.

Mrs. Franks followed her husband on the stand. The older Franks also identified his boy's blood spot.

W. A. JACKSON CO.
"THE STORE AHEAD"

County Judge Kirby—

being called over long distance telephone this afternoon for a statement relative to his candidacy for County Judge, being in the midst of a trial of importance of the County Court, regrets that he is unable at this time to make a detailed statement in behalf of his candidacy, because he has discussed the issues involved in the County Judge's race upon almost every stump in Limestone county and that his platform is the same as has been discussed and published in the press of Limestone County heretofore and as to charges brought against him on account of a new court house, he wishes to state that he has no apologies to offer to any man or set of men for his actions therein, because he used his better judgment in acting as he did.

Also relative to the highway litigation, he was seeking to keep automobile money paid as taxes in Limestone County for the purpose of building the county roads in Limestone county in order that the farmers might be enabled to haul their products off their farms to markets and that all insinuations hurled against the County Judge for his stand against the highway commission as driving Federal aid out of Limestone county is unwarranted as the County Judge has in his possession authority that there is not one dollar of Federal aid now available for Limestone county nor any other county and that there will not be any more Federal aid available until Congress makes a new appropriation for Federal aid for building roads.

He desires to further add that in answer to the argument that he is dictated to by any man or any set of men has been false and without any ground of assertion of any party or parties, and, that he is not the only County Judge in Limestone County who has sought to be elected to the third term as a number of his predecessors have served more than two terms, and if the citizenship sees fit to reelect him, he will promise to conduct the office fair and square to the entire citizenship of Limestone County.

Present Baseball Situation Summed Up By Local Fan

By SCRIBBLES

As the end of the present season draws to a close the race narrows down to a struggle between the Waco Indians, Corsicana Oilers and the Marlin Bathers. And it is almost certain that these clubs will finish in the first division unless someone gives them a sure enough jolt before long. Temple, Austin and Mexia seem to be the contenders for the second division with Austin and Mexia showing up the best although Temple has been playing good ball for the last few games taking a double header from the Oilers on the latter's home grounds.

Looking at the Temple team we find a trio of hitters, Brown, Storey and Lind while the others are only fair hitters. They have a good pitching staff with Johnson, Pipkin, Lester and Nugent pitching fair ball. These pitchers have been winning some good ball games and have been losing some hard ones. To look at them during workouts one would surmise that they would be one of the real contenders for the rag but when they get on the field for a game they seem to lose all their pep.

Austin presents a fair team now with Matlock, Clements, Bedford, Courtney, Anheier and Banner hitting the ball rather lively and Luther Brooks, Dick Whitworth, Scott and Dick Humphreys as capable pitchers. Otto McIver is a foxy old guy and just when the fans think he is losing that is just the time when he is doing his utmost. Better watch out for him during the rest of the season.

The Waco Indians have been a club that has had trouble all of the season but their trouble has been very little compared with that experienced by some of the other clubs in the league. First, Dupuy fires Melvin, a smart baseball manager but who seemed to be unable to accomplish any good with them during workouts one would surmise that they would be one of the real contenders for the rag but when they get on the field for a game they seem to lose all their pep.

The Corsicana Oilers seem to be having their troubles like everyone else and are serenely riding in third place at the present date but as a series with Marlin will be played before this goes to press, they may be in second place or with a tighter hold on third position. Johnnie Byers has been signed by the Oilers and will divide the work with Van in behind the plate. Guber Bill Hollis, Argujo, Cantrell, Gernandt and Crockett are having trouble winning their games as the hot weather come on. Thornton, at first, Malmquist at second, Sain at short, and Harvey Grubb on third presents fair infield and most of them are dangerous as hitters. The Oilers have one of the hardest hitting outfielders in the league in Don Brown, Son Barrett and Bill Etheridge.

The Marlin Bathers have been the jinx to the Gushers all season as Manager Fowlkes' crew has not been able to win a series from Alex and his bunch. Red Covington is doing much of the catching for the Bathers although a new receiver has been bought from the Oklahoma State league and should report shortly. Fred Pipkin, on first, Alex, himself, on second, Skeet Rawlings on short, and Biny White on third present a fair infield combination. Joe Munson, Duke Craig, and Eddie Greer are fair outfielders and are fair hitters although they all seem to be hitters when playing the Gushers. Charley Gressett has been bearing the brunt of the pitching but with Jimmie Wolcott, Johnnie Biggers Mac, Severn, and Vick on the list they should not overwork the big boy very much.

Now here we are at the Gushers' threshold and we hear all sorts of racket going on inside. Manager Fowlkes has had more trouble than any other boss in the loop. First Clarence Tiner did not come through as expected. Herbert Sanders was laid out with a spiked foot and as soon as it healed he was a victim of typhoid fever and is now at home in California. The trouble does not stop there for first base was always a jinx for the Gushers. Five men have been used on the base without much improvement over the first. Gus Ledy has been playing good ball lately but had quite a time getting started and he still could improve in his hitting. Squib Goppert has been playing sensational ball one day and then the next he will play a very ragged exhibition. Ted Jones on third is one of the best hot corner men in the loop. He has fallen down considerably in the last few days with the willow but is showing little signs of coming back to life. The outfield is where the trouble is hurting the most. Claude Bryan has been released and is playing semi-pro ball with the Groesbeck Goats. Ned Seely and Otis Butler are the only outfielders and both could be hitting better than they are at present. County Williamson, former Baylor star, is occupying left field but shows that he must have lots more experience along that line. John Paul Jones, Everett Peel, Squire Turner and Slocum Coleman are only in and outers, although Jones has never been able to start and finish a game yet.

These Indians have been reduced in price to move.

REBELS MAKING EFFORTS AGAIN TO PROVOKE UPRISING

THIRTY NINE ARRESTED CHARGED WITH RIOTING IN MINERS AGITATION

BUENOS AIRES, July 24.—The attack in force by Brazilian Federal troops on the Sao Paulo rebels has failed, according to radio messages here today, and a new bombardment of Sao Paulo City has been started by the invading Government armies.

Camp Eliseos, the palatial home of the Governor of Sao Paulo, has been damaged by artillery fire. It was abandoned by Governor Carlos Campos soon after the rebellion started.

The rebels are making a new effort to incite an uprising in Rio de Janeiro and have circulated a report they intend to attempt an advance on the capital along the Central Do Brasil railway. This story, however, has caused little worry in Government circles as the railway is well protected by loyal troops and an effort to reach Rio by this route is considered impossible.

Radio messages from Santos, port of Sao Paulo, say the coffee capital virtually is deserted except for the military and many districts are in ruins. Loss of life among the civilian population was heaviest in the district of Brazil, thickly populated by Italian factory workers. Scores of these people were killed by stray shells during the bombardment, despite the fact both rebels and Federals did their best to spare the noncombatants.

News Launches Own Your Home Campaign Here

The Mexia Daily News has secured the services of A. H. Motter in launching an "Own Your Home Campaign" in Mexia. The campaign includes a series of thirty illustrated pages on the subject, participated in and made possible through the co-operation of the various business firms of Mexia. The plan adopted is now being used in El Dorado, Little Rock, Shreveport, Houston, Sherman and San Antonio, and it is believed will be helpful in building more homes and a bigger and better Mexia.

Mr. Motter is now seeing the business men in regard to the proposition and The News will appreciate a most careful consideration of the campaign to the end that the fullest co-operation may be secured and the business interests of the city thus join with the press in meeting the greatest problem before the people of Mexia, the problem of more homes.

WATERMELON SHOOT

The Teague Gun club has challenged the Mexia Gun club for a watermelon shoot to be held Friday afternoon, July 25. All members are urged to be present and visitors are always welcome. Shooting will begin at 4 p.m.

The prayer meeting services at local churches each Wednesday night are constantly growing in interest and in numbers. Many look forward to the weekly service, as a real help to them in the midst of the busy days of the week.

ARCH FUND GROWS FOR HUGHES PARK

In the midst of the activities of the political season, with the primaries of Saturday rapidly approaching and with interest high in the campaign, The News has not been prosecuting its plan, for the past few days, for the Hughes Arch to Hughes Park. Despite this, however, subscriptions to the fund continue to come in and the matter will be carried on to an early successful conclusion immediately following the elections of Saturday. All who are anxious to have a part in this work, are urged to send in their contributions at once.

WILBURTON, Okla., July 24.—Thirty-nine persons were either under arrest today or sought upon warrants issued by County Attorney Claude Brigg charging riot in connection with the union agitation open shop mines in Latimer county which came to a head last week when non-union workmen were forced to leave work in the Kala-Inla mine near Hartshorne.

Twenty-one persons have been arrested, sixteen being taken into custody at Hartshorne late yesterday. Eight Hartshorne workers were at liberty under bonds of $2,000 each day after failing not guilty to riot charges at arraignment earlier in the week.

Arraignment of other persons under summons may not be made before the middle of next week, Brigg said today, pending final round up of suspects in the Kala-Inla raid.

Brigg said that additional arrests might be made as information uncovered by officers investigating the incident warranted.

Conditions continued quiet in the mine fields today. Threats of further reprisals by union workers against open shop mines were discounted by officials generally, who believed the miners would be willing to abide by any decision reached at the conference between union officials and operators scheduled at Capitol Monday.

True bills were returned by the Cook county grand jury charging Walter Borica and Ignatius Ciombras, both 19, with attempting to extort $8000 from Jacob Franks, father of Robert Franks, 14, who was murdered by Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb.

The two boys sent a letter to Franks June 21, a month after the murder of Robert, threatening to kidnap Josephine, 16 year old sister of Robert. They demanded $8,000.

Borica and Ciombras admitted sending the letter because they believed the elder Franks was so terrorized by the loss of his son that he would pay.

Friends and intimates of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb helped the state pave the way for the punishment for the millionaire youths who murdered Robert. Slowly but surely State Attorney Crowe produced damning fragments of evidence which he hopes will force Chief Justice Caverly to order the boys hanged.

A dramatic moment in today's session of the trial came when Elizabeth Hattler, maid in the Leopold home, took the stand. With a strong bond of affection between the maid and young Leopold, the latter stiffened as she took the stand. She identified the typewriter used in writing the ransom letter as one similar belonging to Leopold. Also identified other personal effects belonging to the boy which were entered as evidence.

Dr. Emil deutscher, specialist, testified that the glasses found near the body of Robert Franks had been prescribed for Nathan Leopold.

In Limestone and Freestone counties, the Mexia Daily News will be the first to know the results and the first to tell the public just how the voters voted.

Saturday night, shortly following the close of the polls, bulletins will begin to come in, which will be posted promptly and which will later appear in the News of Sunday morning.

The public is invited to avail themselves of the exclusive service secured by the home daily newspaper and assemble in Mexia Saturday evening to get the news fresh from the polls of Texas.

The vote will likely be the largest in the history of the Democratic party in Texas and will be watched eagerly until all doubt has been dismissed as to what the people think.

It is estimated that around 7,000 ballots will be polled in Limestone county.

In 1916, he repeated this victory against Mr. Morris, running for his second term, and winning by a vote of 1777 in the county against 1609 by Mr. Morris.

In 1918, running against Hobby, in Mexia he received only 165 votes in Mexia, while Hobby received 500 votes.

In 1922, running for the United States Senate he received, 1838 votes, while the five other candidates before the people won, in this county, 3,075 votes. Earl B. Mayfield won 1128 of these.

The number of candidates in the race this time is greater than ever before, in this race, which will have its effect on the number he receives. His old time strength, no doubt, has been weakened considerably.

TOM DAUGHERTY GOES TO SISTER'S BEDSIDE

Tom Daugherty left at noon for Dallas, having been called to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Bertha Carroll, of that city. Mrs. Carroll is in the Parkland hospital where she has just undergone an operation. Her condition is described as critical in the telegram received by Mr. Daugherty.

Dub Tournament Is Arousing Interest

The Dub Tournament to start Tuesday at the Mexia Country Club is arousing much interest on the part of members of the club. The tryouts by those who desire to qualify for the tournament began Wednesday afternoon and this afternoon are waxing warmer than ever. During the hot weather, many golf fans are going to the links early each morning to have their daily game.

The F. V. Wolverton has added a second prize to stimulate the contestants, known as the third prize which is a dozen golf balls.

Chester H. Machen
Scores Opponents
To His Candidacy

At 8:30 Wednesday night, on South Sherman street, near the Hurdleston hotel, Chester H. Machen of this city, candidate for District Judge of the Seventy Seventh Judicial District, comprised of Limestone and Freestone counties, discussed his candidacy and county affairs without fear or favor.

In the crowd assembled, were Judge A. M. Blackmon who is offering for re-election to this judicial position and other candidates for public office in the county and district. He was given an attentive and respectful hearing, as he discussed many matters of interest to citizens of the county, hitting his enemies in the contest and designating their ardent campaigners "ringmasters" and "lieutenants."

He stated that he was a prohibitionist and had been one since infancy; that he came to Mexia and this district fighting the liquor traffic and exerting all the power he had, day and night, in enforcing the laws of the state and nation.

The speaker asserted that he was being opposed by some who declared that he would not pay his debts. In this connection, he admitted that he was a poor man and that he had not been able to amass a fortune in public office, for he accepted the public pay check only and never resorted to other

SEEING SHERMAN & VINCENT RICHARDS

It is reported in New York financial circles that Edsel Ford, son of the automobile manufacturer, is to start one of the biggest banks in the world in New York City. Jacob Gould Schurman, American Minister to China, is returning to America in August, according to Pekia reports, to urge that the Pekia Legion be raised to the rank of an Embassy. Vincent Richards, youthful Yonkers, N. Y., tennis star, won the Olympic tennis singles, defeating Henri Cochet, the French champion, three sets in five. For her work on the American Committee for Devastated France, Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of the late Pierpont Morgan, of New York, has been made an officer in the Legion of Honor by the French Government.

methods to enhance his wealth. Mr. Machen declared that he was not licking the heels of any man in this campaign, that he had no campaign manager and that he was merely asking that the people advance him another step up the ladder, if they felt that his record and his ability merited their endorsement in this way.

He said that some had criticised him for going out with Sheriff White Popejoy and his deputies to catch bootleggers. He admitted that he had done this but that he had no apology to offer for so doing; and that if he was elevated to the district Judgeship he would continue his efforts most zealously to enforce every law on the books.

He stated that he had been criticised because he had not been able, with the assistance of the grand jury, last Fall, in looking into the records of the county in connection with what had been termed unnecessary extravagances in the employment of lawyers outside the county and district attorneys' offices and also in connection with the new court house. He stated that he did his best until he went up against a "brick wall" and that he would be glad to refer any inquisitive minds to members of the grand jury in question.

He referred to opposition because of the part he had played in enforcing what is known as the nepotism law, stating that he had no apology to make, as he believed in the enforcement of all laws on the books.

Taking up the court house question, he reviewed the history of the affair, showing how the county commissioners court first rescinded their action wherein they had decided to build a new court house. He declared that he had not taken sides in the matter against the court house only to assert that he thought the people who had to pay for the court house ought to be consulted at the polls before any decision was made. Later the court reassembled, he pointed out and it was announced later that a contract had been let for a court house for $285,000. He thought that might be alright, since the county perhaps did need a new court house, but he still maintained that the people should have been consulted. Then, a little later another contract was heard of, involving another heavy expenditure and according to the last figures he

Blackmon had received $17,500 for property which he owned used for the new court house site. He said that a few days ago, he came upon a crowd in Freestone county who were discussing the Limestone county court house and one of the party had said that they just had to go ahead and build the court house, else Mexia would move it up here. He stated that he replied that this was not true, that Mexia was, at that time, building good schools, paved streets, sanitary plants and was not wanting a court house. He said that Mexia did not want the court house, also, for fear that Bob Hannah might move up here with it, then he said that Bob Hannah was one of the ringmasters going around trying to defeat him for District Judge.

He told of his struggles when he first went to Groesbeck as District Attorney; that he met opposition which even tried to keep him from securing an office in the court house; that he was the only official in the county and district residing in Mexia and concluded by stating that he was making the fight of his life for the office and while so doing was not neglecting his duties as District Attorney.

CORSICANA VETERAN

KILLED BY TRAIN

CORSICANA, Texas, July 24.—J. M. Holland, 84 years old, Civil War veteran and long time resident of Corsicana, was almost instantly killed about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, when he was struck by the westbound Cotton Belt passenger train at the South Fifteenth street intersection. He died in the County Hospital an hour later. The body is being held pending funeral arrangements.

Mr. Holland was walking across the track en route to town to get his morning newspaper when the train, about forty minutes behind schedule, swooped down upon him. He apparently did not see or hear the train and was not observed by the engineer until too late to stop in time to prevent the accident.

Mr. Holland is survived by two sons, Critie Holland, Lark, Ok.; Tom Holland, Groesbeck, and one daughter, Mrs. Joanna Campbell, Corsicana, with whose family he has made his home since the death of his wife several months ago.

Mr. Holland was born in the State of Alabama, Jan. 22, 1840.

In 1876 Mr. and Mrs. Holland came to Texas and to Navarro County in 1877, where he engaged in farming. Later taking up residence in Corsicana.

Mr. Holland enlisted in the Confederate Army in 1861 and served for three and a half years defending the cause of the South. At the battle of Franklin, in Tennessee, he received a wound in one of his arms. For five months of the war Mr. Holland was in a Federal prison.

ANNUAL COST OF FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CUT TWO BILLION DOLLARS SINCE 1921

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The United States Government's operating expenses in 1924 will be two billion dollars under those of 1921—a figure exceeding the divided paid by all the railroads in the country for the last five years.

This estimate of prodigious governmental cost cutting has been made public by General H. M. Lord, director of the budget, in connection with the announcement of probable expenditures in the new fiscal year.

Exclusive of the amount applied for the reduction of the public debt, all expenditures must be kept within three billion dollars, according to the fact issued by President Coolidge.

Must Cut Burden.

"The heavy burden of the taxpayer must be further lightened," Director Lord said. "Continued reduction in expenditure and continued restriction of estimates alone can accomplish tax cutting."

The taxpayer, who has patriotically and uncomplainingly paid more than $120,000,000,000 of war costs in the past few years, rightly feels that there should be relief from war taxation in larger measure than has been afforded."

Lord declared that the spending program will be very nearly carried out, "despite legislation and unforseen developments that made the task more difficult than was anticipated."

It was explained that the soldiers' adjusted compensation measure has added $132,000,000,000 to the problem.

Outlining the accomplishments of the Government since 1921, the last year free from budget control, Lord asserted that, aside from public debt expenses, the proportion of all Government cost was but 28 per cent Federal, while States, cities and towns drew 72 per cent from the taxpayers.

More This Year.

"If the figures for 1924 were available the difference would be still more startling," Lord added.

"In pointing to what the Federal Government has accomplished in the way of retrenchment we intend no reflection upon the States and cities of this country. We do, however, wish to show what united effort in a common patriotic purpose can accomplish."

Lord said that the executive departments of the Government had outlined a spending program of $4,363,274,092 for 1922, adding that a wave of economy, operating through the new Budget Bureau, cut the costs for 1922 $1,742,738,189 below those of the year before. The 1923 drive reduced expenditures $263,033,238 below those of 1922.

Huge Reduction.

"The figures for this year, ending June 30, show a reduction of approximately $200,000,000 below those of last year," Lord continued. "We will spend this year $2,000,000,000 less than we took from the Treasury in 1921. In three budget years we have cut the ordinary expenses of Government in half."

Visualizing what the two billion dollars mean, Lord explained.

"Half of the gold coin and bullion in the United States.

"The entire savings of 12,500,000

depositors in the nation's savings banks for a period of twenty months.

"The value of all the motor vehicles produced in the United States in 1922

"It exceeds the amount paid by all the railroads in the United States for five years.

"It is more than twice the value of the cotton crop of 1922 and nearly two and one-half times the value of the country's wheat crop that year."

Permits Tax Cut.

If in the three budget years the financial pruning knife had not lopped $865,517,155 from annual estimates there would have been no tax reduction in 1924, according to Lord.

Notwithstanding tax reduction and curtailment of revenue the public debt has been reduced from $24,594,267,878 in August 1919, to $21,253,884,276, the Budget Director said.

Again referring to State and city expenditures, Lord said that in 1921 Federal expenditures were 59 per cent of the cost of government, while the lesser divisions were responsible for the remaining 41 per cent. Including public-debt expenditures, the Federal Government in 1924 makes an assessment of only 40 per cent on the public purse, while the State and city governments take 60 per cent. The mentioned 23-72 per cent comparison is a true reflection of the cost of ordinary government, according to the budget head.

Hits "Smaller Units."

He said that public expenditure, taxation and indebtedness of the smaller units, such as States, cities, towns, and counties, has been "mounting higher and higher in a most dangerous and alarming degree."

Credit to Congressional economy was given by Lord. He said, in estimates for 1922, executive agencies asked for $1,812,925,813 more than Congress gave. Estimates for 1923, the first budget year, were $162,522,008 more than the resultant appropriations, while for 1924 estimates exceed appropriations by $10,088,595.

"In a budget totaling $3,622,125,659 this result is extraordinary," Lord commented.

If a man is troubled with indigestion it is a waste of time to try to convince him that the world is growing better.

Sergeant Narrowly Escapes Great Divide

"Before I started for Karnak I firmly believed I was ready to cross the Great Divide," says C. O. Worthy, civilian foreman of the Quartermaster's warehouse, Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas.

"I had suffered from stomach trouble for ten years, and had gotten so bad off that all the nourishment I could take was a little milk and crackers. Five weeks ago they carried me home from my office and I wasn't able to hit a lick of work until I began taking Karnak."

"Well, this medicine has ended my troubles, built me up twelve pounds, and put me back on the job feeling fine. Everyone is talking about my remarkable recovery, and I feel it a duty to tell others about Karnak."

Karnak is sold in Mexia by Mexia Drug Company.

ranged as shown in the illustration, two yards being needed to trim the dress. There are three yards of ribbon velvet in the belt.

The two diagrams given show how to make alterations in the neck and armseye of the dress, if they are required. Here, if anywhere, a dress must feature good lines, especially when there is so little snugness at the waist. Fig. I pictures how the neckline may be cut lower at the back and often this is desired when the dress is made without a collar, a simple binding of self-material being employed instead. If the neckline is desired an inch or a half-inch lower, first indicate the depth wanted with pins, then baste along the line indicated by the pins. The neckline is then cut to fit the fancy of the dressmaker.

Fig. II shows how to take darts on the shoulder and at the underarm; seam of the waist if alteration is needed at these points. If a closer line is desired for the neck, the arm-hole being the right size, then the alteration at the underarm seam may be omitted and the seam of the shoulder taken in with the narrow part of the armseye and the wide part of the neckline, just reversing the effect illustrated.

There are so many delightful negligee cottons that would be appropriate for this frock that almost anyone that the home dressmaker cares to select would be appropriate. The model calls for four and one-half yards of material, 36 inches wide. The lace collar, cuffs and vest may be bought in a set, or else the lace may be bought by the yard and ar-

M. A. (MAID) AINSWORTH MAKES STATEMENT TO VOTERS

In entering the race for District Clerk, I wish to say to the voters that I have been reared in Limestone county and in Limestone county I have lived all my life; reared on a farm and have done the farming. I have always stood for every thing good that any other man stood for and against all the bad things that my mother and all the other good people were against. I cast my maiden vote for Prohibition and am glad to say that I am one of the men who put the open saloon out of Limestone Co. I am making my home in Mexia at this time. I came here in Nov., 1923, bargained for my home, which is located at 415 N. Red River St., known as the Oliver Gilmore place. Now if you, the good people of Limestone county, see proper to nominate me Saturday, I promise to meet the requirements of efficiency in this important office. I will not break faith with you, neither will I betray any trust or confidence you place in me. I will have no friends to reward or enemies to punish, if elected—just a square deal to everybody.

I thank you.

Playground Once Scene of Regatta

AUSTIN, July 24.—Lake Austin, now the playground of college students, was in 1892 the scene of a great regatta which drew equal stars from all parts of the world, and rivalled the Olympic water sports.

The event was the celebration of completion of the old dam, and the naming of the lake McDonald, since changed to Austin. Captain Jack Crotty of Stephenville, formerly of Austin, was one of the chief promoters. With the assistance of Lee Smith, a newspaper man, he brought oarsmen and swimmers from all parts of the world to compete.

Crotty himself was an oarsman of some fame and the prizes offered were sufficient to tempt the best in the game.

COMPARISON OF RECORDS EDGAR WITT AND HARRY P. JORDAN CANDIDATES FOR THE STATE SENATE

Patriotic Citizens Take Your Choice:

In the view of the fact that Harry P. Jordan has widely advertised in the public press and by letter the claim that he is a member of the American Legion with the rank of Major, that he has served with distinction in the House of Representatives of the Legislature and is entitled to promotion; and that his opponent, Senator Edgar E. Witt, has done nothing to be entitled to re-election and has served two terms and is running for a third—which are not facts—the writers wish to call the attention of the voters to the following comparisons and let them take their choice.

As to Harry P. Jordan.

When he advertised that he was a member of the American Legion and was a "Major" members of the James Edmond Post at Waco doubted his eligibility to membership and the Executive Committee of the Post addressed two letters to him and finally secured from him a statement that "upon investigation he had discovered that he was not eligible to membership." Further inquiry into his military record discloses that his title of Major was secured as a result of military training at A. & M. College furnished by the State followed up with fifteen years active participation in the National Guards in times of peace, with a withdrawal from the National Guard and no participation of any kind or character with the Army during the time of war, but a re-entrance into the Guard in 1919 after the Armistice.

As to his Legislative record upon which he bases his request for promotion, the records of the 34th Legislature of which he was a member show that the regular session was 68 days long and that Mr. Jordan was there 17 days only and made one motion during the session and that was a motion to adjourn; that he drew his entire pay and other allowances aggregating $22.00 per day for the time actually served instead of the $5.00 per day provided by law; and that at the Special Session of 30 days he attended 6 days, and the pay drawn by him averaged $37.50 per day for the time in actual attendance. This special session was for the purpose of passing the appropriation bills and this attendance of six days out of thirty shows how zealous this member was in regard to the matter of appropriating the people's money.

As a member of the Senate, Mr. Witt has been regarded as one of the most capable, influential and industrious members of that body. The District has been proud of the fact that it has been represented by a man so far above the average type of man available for legislative service. We know that he has rendered this service at a financial sacrifice because he is a member of a law firm of high standing and large practice. We have insisted on his continuing in the service because we appreciate the need of such a man in the Senate of Texas. The making of laws is too important a matter to be wholly trusted to men of inexperience and so frequently of the most mediocre ability.

Mr. Jordan has always been an anti-prohibitionist.

In view of the above we think that all men and women who wish to give their support to a man who is a patriotic citizen, and is a fair, just, intelligent and industrious legislator, will vote for Edgar E. Witt for a Second Term. He has secured a standing in the Legislature of Texas and the confidence of his associates that will make his services even more valuable to this district in the future than in the past.

"For Mexia, I WILL"

OVER THE TOP TO VICTORY!

"Tears are softening showers which cause the seed of heaven to spring up in the human heart" —Walter Scott.

Our neighbor and fellow southerner, the Hon. Pat Harrison of Mississippi, sounded the keynote of the Democratic Convention in New York City. His address re-echoed throughout the siege of the three weeks session and has been accepted by the Democrats of all of the states of the Union. That keynote demands clean government. It, therefore, becomes necessary for the voters in Democratic primaries wherever held to cast their ballots in favor of clean men who will serve their country and not themselves alone. To do otherwise would be to break faith with the party and to join with the enemies of this country who would steer our ship of state into the shoals of anarchism and reefs of national disaster.

Forty eight years ago, the cry of the people, the demand of American patriots of all parties and the need of the hour was to rid the nation of misrule, to dethrone graft and greed, and to lift to places of duty, responsibility and honor the highest type of American manhood. With the same conditions existing in our country today as prevailed at that time, it behooves every loyal citizen of Democratic faith to go to the polls Saturday and engage, courageously, conscientiously and intelligently in the battle of ballots then to be waged.

The contest will be waged, not with shot and shell, not with sword and sabre, not in the midst of bloodshed and carnage nor while bands play and artillery booms. The polls in every voting box and precinct, and county and district in the state will be battle field. There the ballots will fall as softly as the snowflakes from the winter sky but they will come with the force of the thunderbolt to strike terror to the hearts of all enemies of good government and to all candidates who would undermine Constitutional government and who would use public office for private greed and gain rather than for the general welfare.

That sacred and solemn event is nearly here.

The welfare of our precinct; the future of our county; the political progress of our Lone Star land, on that occasion, will fall with equal weight upon our lowly and upon our great, upon our citizens of want and upon our people of wealth. The poor will be as powerful as the rich. All will be sovereign citizens of Texas on that occasion and each man and woman who advances to the polls at that time, for that day at least, will be public officials, serving their state in the capacities of every office for which they cast a vote, from constable to governor.

Let us advance calmly and without fear. Let us remember that more battles are won by love than by hate. Let us place a ban on intolerance no matter how gaudy may be her decorations. Let us place our country first and when the day then is done there will come into our souls, like sweet music from an invisible angelic host, that knowledge that we have done our best and our God will do the rest.

Democrats, forward march!

CITIZENSHIP

A compilation of statistics by Collier's Weekly, shows that:

In 1896, 80 per cent of voters cast ballots.
In 1900, 73 per cent.
In 1908, 66 per cent.
In 1912, 62 per cent.
In 1920, less than 50 per cent.
What will be the showing in 1924?

Reasons for the steadily decreasing interest of the electorate in their right and duty are as varied as their sources. The increase of the vote through woman suffrage, the dissatisfaction of voters with the alleged decadence of parties and the supposed fact that one party is much like another, too great an increase in foreign born population, are all suggested.

A fourth, which has some appeal to logic to recommend it is the failure of the electorate to understand "what it is all about." In other words, the complexity of the problems involved makes a choice of candidate or party so difficult that the mental laziness which is apparently an inherent part of the majority of minds takes charge and prevents any vote, rather than endure the discomfort of thinking out which candidate to vote for.

If this last suggested reason is correct, November should show a surprising increase over previous years in percentage of votes cast. It is true that there is no such issue before the public this year as, for instance, in 1896; there is no such sharp differentiation between the platforms of the two major parties as might cause such an increase in votes. But there is the radio; millions listened with absorbing interest to the proceedings at Cleveland and New York to whom, hitherto, a convention was merely an incident in the day's news. Those millions have been educated at first hand. They know "what it is all about." They heard the statesmen, the politicians and the "wheel horses" of the great parties talk. And then, following a universal human curiosity, they turned to the newspapers the next day to read again what they had heard the night before!

If, as is believed, a record vote is polled this November, the reason may be found in that which is fundamental to all citizenship: education!

PARIS, July 24.—Handbag harmony is the order of the day. A jarring bag may ruin a chic woman's whole appearance.

Nothing is stable in the fashion world. Bags change as often as gowns. After being small and inconspicuous for several years, bags are now much larger, so large, in fact, as to resemble small-sized suitcases. These larger ones are flat and envelope shape, the pochette type, with a strap going round and ending up with a buckle. One shop is showing a striking one in seal of dark tone blended with lizard, which is, perhaps, the favorite of the season. Sometimes it comes dyed a delicate jade green, turquoise blue, or rust and chestnut shades. It is now the vogue to order extra skins from the bootmaker in order to have enough for the bag to match the shoes. For to be really chic, the bag must either match or blend harmoniously with the shoes and costume.

As in everything else, gorgeous colors are prevailing—turkey reds and turquoise blues, together with a delightful new rose tint. Bags of brilliant colored enamels are enticing many women, but embroidered models are probably the most popular. They come exquisitely worked in point de Beauvais and Alencon lace, dull tapestry effects and brighter ones. A charming one noticed at the Ritz tea last Friday was in white satin, embroidered in gold-colored silk, and another in gray silk, embroidered in finely shaded flowers in pastel shades. Andre is showing some fastidious vanity cases in an endless and surprising variety, just large enough to contain vanity fittings, a tiny handkerchief and a bit o' pocket change. And there are several Russian shops making delightful woven affairs, with gay Russian embroideries. They are made by the Russian refugees, pauper royalties, who are trying to eke out an existence in friendly Paris.

WHOLE BASEBALL TEAM AT "SECRET" WEDDING

(By International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—Joe Hauser, the hard-hitting first sacker of Connie Mack's Athletics, had his wedding all planned and it was going to be on the "Q. T."

But when he and Miss Irene Kaye of Milwaukee, arrived at the Church of the Seven Dolors, Wnydmoor, for the ceremony, they found there had been a leak somewhere and every member of the American League team was on hand. But a good time was had by all.

AN OLD EYE SORE MOVED AT LAST

The old shack building in the street just east of the H. & T.C. freight depot, and which was used by the Chatham and moved to his lots near Western Union Telegraph company for their office during the oil boom, and until recently, has at last been probably be fixed up for a residence moved off. It was purchased by T. B. to be rented.

HILL COUNTY TO HAVE TEST TO WOODBINE DEPTHS

Jeff Meers, well known geologist of this section, announces that a wildcat oil operation is to begin soon 3 1/2 miles south of Hubbard in Hill County. The location is just across the line from Limestone county.

According to present plans, the test will spud in Monday, July 28.

About 4,000 acres have been blocked for the test.

The Woodbine sand is expected to be reached at a depth of around 1700 feet.

Quite a number of companies are reported as being interested in the section, some of which have secured tracts already while others are sending scouts to the area.

Mr. Meers has spent several months in studying the territory carefully and in going over the section. The location is on the Nathan 100 acre farm, 475 feet south of the north line in the Copeland survey.

Big Lot Machinery Now Ready For Ft. Worth Mill

FORT WORTH, Texas, July 24.—Forty carloads of machinery for the Worth Mills, now under construction rear here, are ready for shipment and will be moved from Fairhaven, Mass., in a few days, according to Rudy Copeland, vice president of Fort Worth's first textile mill.

The machinery will be stored here until the middle of September, when installation of equipment will begin. A total of 100 carloads of machinery will be received, Copeland said.

Ipsinjected Calomel Is Better than the Old-Time Sickening Kind

It is gentle, imported English Calomel, combined with Pepsin and other helpful ingredients. It is mild but certain, causing no harshness or unpleasantness and will absolutely relieve indigestion, biliousness, bad colds, constipation and sick headaches. And best of all it does it at once—quickly and pleasantly. Take one small tablet at bed-time and you will get up hungry and feeling fine. Recommended by Remington Drug Store.

THE GOLFER

To My Friend Walter Womack
There are songs enough for heroes
Who bled on some battle field
Who fought for and followed Old Glory
And died, yet never would yield
There are praises enough for musicians,
And of poets we've heard quite enough
So I'm handing this in for the guy that can grin
When his ball goes into the "rough"
—by gosh
When his ball goes into the rough.

He takes his "stance" with composure
And lovingly tees up the ball
He fondles his favorite "driver"
Then swings with his might, main and all
The crack of the club on the rubber
Announces a "drive" that's a sight
And now, when he sees where its going
He finds that he's sliced to the right
—by gosh
He finds that he's sliced to the right.

He takes out his deepest faced
"mashie"
With a look that's determined and grim
Tis plain that wherever it's lying
It matters no difference to him
He aims for a stroke that is positive
To give him nineteen degrees pitch
Then watches in wonder disgusted
As the pill drops into the ditch
—by gosh
As the pill drops into the ditch.

Oh sing me no sweet lover's sonnet
Or troubadour's lay of old Spain
But tell me a ditty dog-gone it
Of a "drive" that is made not in vain
For it's easy enough to be happy
When "par" is the worst that you make
But the guy with the guts, smiles at missing his "puts"
And laughs when they go in the lake
—by gosh
And laughs when they go in the lake.

Federal Government To Foster Cotton Classification

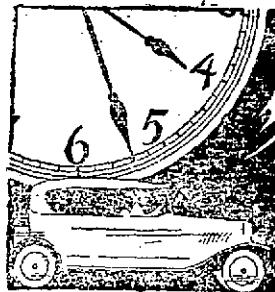

AUSTIN, Texas, July 24.—Plans are under way by the federal government for improving the local cotton market by shortening the distance from producer to consumer, and to improve the system of classification of cotton.

Dr. A. B. Cox, of Washington, D. C., who is in charge of research work in this field, points out that the average farmer knows very little about cotton classification, but must depend entirely on the grades placed on the cotton by large firms. It may mean much to the farmer, Dr. Cox said, if the federal government can assure him that classification is uniformly correct in every respect. To further this work, Dr. Cox has recently studied cotton conditions in California, Oklahoma, and several other cotton producing states, and is now enroute to Rio Grande Valley. His "territory" includes 15 cotton producing states.

Final Word to the Voters of the 87th District:

I have not been able to see many of the voters personally because I have been engaged in court duties during the entire campaign. The 87th District Court is now in session in Fairfield and the term will last until a week after the primary election. I have not forsaken my post of duty to canvass for re-election, although I have two opponents working over-time against me.

I am asking for a second term as Judge of the 87th District court upon the record I have made during the 16 months that I have served as your District Judge. It is generally admitted that I have made a fair and capable District Judge and no reason has been given or offered why I should be retired. The experience which I have had on the bench will be helpful to me during another term. If I have made good so far, I feel that I am entitled to the customary second term, as has been given to every other district judge in the counties composing this district for the last 25 or 30 years.

Trusting that I may have the help of all good men and women at the polls next Saturday, I am

To the Voters of the 77th Judicial District:

As a last word before the election, I wish to thank my many friends for their generous interest manifested in my candidacy. I have made a clean race, with no words of criticism or unkindness for anyone. I am submitting my candidacy for re-election upon the basis of my ability to serve. My record as an official is before you. It is generally considered that I have made a good Judge—if so, why change? Each of my opponents are asking that I be put out, and he put in; Ben Franklin's advice would I suggest, be a good guide for your action on next Saturday.

HARVEST BULLETIN NO. 7

The harvest in the Big Wheat Belt has progressed through most of Nebraska where cutting is drawing to a close and threshing has started. Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and Nebraska harvested this year in round numbers 22 million acres of wheat, producing approximately 75 per cent of the winter wheat of the United States. More than 70,000 outside laborers have been required to care for this crop. The supply of labor has been adequate although there have been moments of anxiety and to meet the needs for men to distribute them equitably has taxed this organization to the limit. County agricultural agents, state and federal labor officials, Chambers of Commerce, bankers, business and farmer organizations in the wheat districts have given to the Farm Labor Division the fullest co-operation.

The small grain harvest will start the latter part of this week in the Spring wheat states. Sioux City, Iowa is the gateway to the Dakotas and harvest laborers should go to the permanent branch office in the City Hall, Sioux City for information and direction.

South Dakota.

Harvesting in South Dakota will start in the Southeastern districts about July 25 to 28. This state has about 6,000,000 acres of Spring wheat, oats, barley and rye. The condition of the crops is better than last year and several thousand men will be required to harvest the small grain crops.

Special Agents of this service are now stationed at Sioux Falls, Mitchell, Huron, Redfield, Watertown and Aberdeen. Temporary Field Headquarters of the Farm Labor Division will be opened at Aberdeen, July 21th.

North Dakota.

While the harvest acreage of Spring wheat in this state will be about 1,000,000 acres less than last year, the July estimate indicates a production of about 15,000,000 bushels more than in 1923 on an acreage of 7,435,000. The wheat, oats and barley to be harvested in North Dakota totals more than 11,000,000 acres. The rye harvest in North Dakota will start about July 25th and the cutting of when will begin the first week of August.

Thousands of harvest hands will be required and the drift at this time to Dakotas from the Southern fields is heavy. This Service does not anticipate any shortage of labor for the Dakotas. This Service, co-operating closely with the State Labor Commission and the County Agents of North Dakota, will have Special Agents stationed at Oakes, Fargo, Grand Forks, Jamestown, Devils Lake, Minot, Bismarck, Williston, and at other important distributing centers if needed. These offices will be opened within a few days. Temporary Field Headquarters will be maintained at the Public Employment Office at Fargo.

Montana.

Montana's prospect for a good wheat crop is favorable. This state has 3,500,000 acres of Spring and Winter wheat and several thousand men from the outside will be needed to care for the crop.

The Farm Labor Division will maintain offices for the distribution of labor at Bainville, Miles City, Billings, Great Falls, and such other points as may seem desirable. All offices in the Dakotas will have full information at all times as to the needs of Montana and frequent announcements will be issued to State and Federal and to Special and County Agents.

Idaho.

Idaho will harvest about 1,000,000 acres of wheat. The hot dry weather has already started the harvest in Idaho. South Central Idaho's crop has been cut short by frosts and dry weather and no large labor demands are expected in the state. The heaviest labor demand will come from South Central section about August 1st; but the drift at the present time is good and no shortage is anticipated.

A Special Agent of the Farm Labor Division is stationed at Pocatello. Harvest inquiries will receive information and direction by applying to this office.

Oregon.

Oregon has a little over 1,000,000 acres of wheat, the heaviest acreage lying in the Northeastern quarter of the state. The harvest is now on in Oregon and sufficient labor has been recruited to meet present and indicated future requirements. This Service is not encouraging more men to go to the Northwest, as the drift seems ample.

This Service has a Special Agent stationed at the Dalles, Idaho, to give information and direction to seasonal laborers seeking work in this state.

Washington.

In this state about 2,250,000 acres of wheat will be harvested. Of this acreage about 1,250,000 is Winter wheat and 1,000,000 acres Spring wheat.

The harvest has begun in Washington and in the extreme Southeast section is just getting underway and will continue through the month of August. The heaviest grain section lies from the Idaho border West about 75 miles. From this point to the irrigated sections of the Yakima and Wenatchee valleys cutting will be light on account of the unusually dry season.

Men to meet the harvest requirements of the state of Washington have been recruited and the drift is sufficient to meet the needs. It is unwise for laborers of other states to go to Washington for work in the harvest.

A permanent branch office of the Farm Labor Division is located at 201 Trent Avenue, Spokane. This office is headquarters for Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Special Agents are stationed at Walla Walla, Colfax and Seattle and applicants to these offices will receive information and direction as to labor needs of these states.

Announcements will be issued at frequent intervals giving the progress of the harvest for the Dakotas, Montana and the Northwest.

Director.

Wish to Submit His Name For Your Consideration As A Candidate

FOR RE-ELECTION AS JUDGE OF THE 77TH. DISTRICT COURT

He Is Able, Fearless And Impartial. He Has Served This District Court Through An Unparalleled Period Of Important And Vexatious Litigation.

DURING THE PAST FEW YEARS HE HAS DISPOSED OF APPROXIMATELY SEVEN THOUSAND CASES. HIS RECORD AS SHOWN BY APPEAL CASES IS SECOND TO NO DISTRICT JUDGE OF THE STATE. DURING THIS PERIOD ONLY ONE CASE TRIED BY HIM HAS BEEN REVERSED BY THE STATE SUPREME COURT, WHICH CALMLY AND SOLEMNLY PASSES FINALLY UPON THE ACTS OF THE DISTRICT JUDGE.

HIS SPLENDID WORK HAS RESULTED IN A GREAT SAVING TO THE STATE AND HAS PROTECTED LITIGANTS FROM UNNECESSARY LOSS OF TIME AND WASTE OF MONEY.

His Record Stands As A Silent Tribute To His Efficiency, Integrity And Faithfulness.

Phone Results To News Office When Count Is Complete

All election officials in Limestone county are respectfully requested to phone The Mexia Daily News the result of the boxes over the county over which they preside, immediately upon completing the count Saturday night.

Special phones are available in this office and The News will be able to exchange information that will be like wise appreciated in the voting precincts of Limestone county.

Just tell your phone operator to get The News office at Mexia, collect. The less delay, the better the public will be served.

An efficient corps of tabulators will be on duty at The News office and results will be given to the public Saturday night both by bulletins posted near the entrance to the circulation department of the News office, at the Anderson and Horn drug store corner, and in the paper bearing Sunday morning date line.

The News will also give returns of the State election.

The co-operation of the county is urged and in return the voters of the county are invited to be in Mexia Saturday night to get the returns immediately and in more complete form than to be secured elsewhere in the county.

FORT WORTH, July 24.—Corsets for men!

Imagine stalwart Texans with their middles clasped by contraptions of steel and canvas!

That's what we can expect, according to P. G. Pflueger, haberdasher. Pflueger, who insists he isn't joking, says the men in Paris are already wearing corsets, and since Paris fashions usually arrive down here about a year later, he predicts that 1925 will see Texas males donning corsets each morning.

Tight fitting coats and vests are coming too, Pflueger says. Trouser won't be so tight as the upper garments.

You are about to employ a county school superintendent for the ensuing two years. My life's work, thus far, has been finding and solving the problems of the rural school. I did my teacher-training work at Sam Houston Normal and Bachelor of Science work at A. & M. College. I have spent eighteen years teaching in the rural schools of Limestone county and ask you to promote me to the superintendency of the schools of which I am familiar.

Assuring you that I shall appreciate this promotion, I am,

Cordially yours,
J. J. BATES.

IRA LAWLEY SPEAKS AT OLD SPRINGFIELD

Lawyers Cost County $22,153.48
Last Year. Elect County Attorney Who Will Do This Work
and Save County $18,000.
Per Year.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

It affords me pleasure to be at Springfield this (July 17) morning and to discuss with you the legal duties of the persons you will elect and have elected to serve as your County Attorney.

In this discussion I will not speak disrespectfully of any person or thing, and it is not my purpose to impeach the integrity of any person, but to simply submit to you the unimpeachable records of Limestone County, which speak for themselves and cannot be contradicted and I submit these records for your consideration. I will also limit my discussion and remarks to the legal duties of a county attorney, to the official record of the present county attorney who asks to be re-elected, to the failure of the present county attorney to perform certain mandatory official duties and the consequent cost of this neglect to the county for the year 1923, from Jan. 1, to Dec. 31, 1923, inclusive, which was the first year of the administration of the present county attorney.

The county attorney is your agent or official, and he is responsible to you for what he does, and as long as he acts as your agent or official, you are responsible and bound by his acts.

I will proceed to discuss the law applicable to the duties of the county attorney and the official record as made by your present county attorney, which is public property and same will be found recorded among the various public records of this county.

Under the State Constitution, the laws of Texas, and the decisions of the higher courts of this State the official duties of the county attorney are as follows:

(1) He is the lawyer for, and the legal advisor of all the county and precinct officers. (Article 356a of the Revised Civil Laws of Texas.)

(2) He is lawyer and legal representative for the county and it is his official duty to represent the State and county in all District Courts and all inferior Courts. (See Section 21, of Article V, of the Constitution of Texas.)—and cases in point.

(3) It is his mandatory legal duty to file suits for the collection of delinquent taxes before the 1st day of June of each year. (See Article 420c and 420d of the Criminal Laws of Texas.)

I will now present a discussion of these duties in the order just stated:

He is the lawyer for and the legal advisor of all the county and precinct officers. There is also a corresponding duty of all county and precinct officers to take and abide by the advice of the county attorney and the advice of the county attorney should govern the official acts and conduct of all various officers, for the people have elected a county attorney to keep the officials posted upon the law.

If the county attorney is not qualified, or not willing or neglects to keep the officials of the county posted upon the law he is not entitled to be permitted to continue in office and draw pay to perform duties he does not or cannot perform.

He is the lawyer and legal representative of and for the county, and it is his official duty to represent the State and county in all District Courts and all inferior Courts.

In connection with this duty he should keep himself posted as to when and where the State and County needs to be represented by a lawyer, and if he is negligent and does not keep himself posted as to the necessity of representing the State and county in all district courts and inferior courts, or if he is not qualified to represent the State and county in all district courts and all inferior courts he is not entitled to be re-elected and continued in office and permitted to draw the salary allowed by law to perform work he neglects or is not qualified to perform.

During the year 1923 the Western Oil Fields Corporation brought suit against Limestone County in U. S. District Court in an effort to get out of paying the just and honest taxes due by said corporation to Limestone County in the sum of $12,634.78. Lawyers were employed in this case at an additional expense to Limestone County in the sum of $4,000.00. This case was compromised without a legal contest for $20,500.00, which was less than 50% of the taxes due the county by said corporation. Limestone county paid $2,000.00 of the $4,000.00 lawyer fee and for a corresponding reduction in taxes the Western Oil Fields Corporation paid $2,000.00 of the $4,000.00 lawyer fee and the cost of filing the suit, which was less than $200.00. In and by the settlement of this case Limestone county lost in failing to collect taxes about $20,500.00 and this amount was lost regardless of the facts that the $42,347.8 and taxable values placed upon the property assessed for taxes had been approved by the board of equalization of Limestone county being a fair and reasonable taxable value to be placed upon the property said corporation just like values fails or neglects to do so that he should be fined not less than $100.00 or more than a $1000.00, and removed from office.

However, the acts of the 3rd Called Session of the 38th Legislature, page 184, provides as follows:

"Whenever the Commissioners' Court of any county after thirty days written notice to the county attorney or district attorney to file delinquent tax suits and his (County Attorney's) failure so to do, shall deem it necessary or expedient, said court may contract with any competent attorney to enforce or assist in the enforcement of the collection of any delinquent state and county taxes for a per cent on the taxes, penalty and interest actually collected."

You will notice that the county attorney must first fail to perform his legal and official duty and thereby violate his oath of office before the Commissioners' Court is authorized to contract with a lawyer to file suit to collect delinquent taxes, and if the county attorney should or does fail to file suit to collect said taxes, he is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than $1000.00 and in addition thereto subject to being removed from office.

Why does the law provide that should the county attorney fail, refuse or neglect to perform the official duty and legal duty of filing suit to collect delinquent taxes he shall be removed from office. Is it not because, the law intended that he should do this work without additional cost to the people and tax payers of the county, and should he fail to perform his duties imposed by law that he should be removed from office so an official could be appointed or elected who would perform said official duties.

In the face of these laws, in disobedience to them and in disregard of them, and by violating his oath of office to discharge the duties of the office, your present county attorney failed, refused and neglected to file any suits for the collection of delinquent taxes before June 1, 1923, and after members of the Commissioners' Court had requested him on several occasions to proceed to file said suits, he failed and neglected to do so. He could not give as a reason for his failure to file these suits that he had been too busy, for the records of the county court show that he has only tried about 13 criminal cases since he has been in office, and 5 of them were found not guilty. I hold in my hand a certificate signed and sealed officially by the county clerk of this county which states, "that since January 1, 1923, only thirteen criminal cases have been tried in the county court of Limestone county. On August 18, 1923, over two and one-half months had passed after time fixed by law in which to file delinquent tax suits he advised the Commissioners' Court to make a contract with one certain outside lawyer other than the county attorney or the assistant county attorney, and he advised the court that he would not work with any other lawyer, and if this lawyer was not employed he would make no attempt to file suit to collect delinquent taxes. The order passed by the Commissioners' Court in this case I heard it frequently said that the case would be settled for 40% or 50% of the $81,053.94, but I am egotistical enough to believe that my efforts and the efforts of your tax assessor raised this settlement to 75% thereby netting to Limestone county over the basis of percentage for which the other case was settled about $25,000.00.

This is a little out of line, but while here, I will say that since the present county attorney has been in office I have represented some of the officials of the county in three other suits, in two of which I donated my services to the officials and county and did not receive any money for my services and paid my own expenses. I won one of the two cases, and the other one is pending in the Supreme court. I received a $75.00 fee in the third case which was the case of H. E. Walton vs Limestone county and Boyett & Sherman. In this suit, Mr. Walton sought to recover from Limestone county and Boyett & Sherman $8,000.00. I defended the suit for Limestone county. As a result of my labor Mr. Walton did not recover one penny from the county and the county was cut no other expense in this law suit save and except $750.00 paid to me. It was the official duty of the county attorney to represent Limestone county and the officials in all of these suits.

It is the county attorney's mandatory legal duty to file suits for the collection of delinquent taxes before the 1st day of June of each year. (See Article 420c and 420d of the Criminal Laws of Texas.)

In discussing this duty and to enable you to know the law pertaining to this duty, I will quote from Article 420c and 420d of the Criminal Laws of Texas which are section 3 to 4 of Chapter 147, page 252 of the Acts of the 34th Legislature as follows:

Sec. 3.  Not later than June 1 of each year  it shall be the duty of the county attorney, or the district attorney if there be no county attorney to file and institute suits as otherwise provided by law for the collection of all delinquent taxes due at the time of filing such suit on land or lots situated in such county, together with interest, penalties and costs then due as otherwise provided by law."

Sec. 4. of the same Act. "The duties prescribed in this Act for the county tax collector, county and district attorneys and the other officers, State and county, are hereby declared to be mandatory and shall not be construed as merely directory, and any county or state official who shall fail or refuse to perform the duties herein set out for him to perform shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in any sum not less than $100.00 nor more than $1000.00 and this amount was lost regardless of the facts that the $42,347.8 and taxable values placed upon the property assessed for taxes had been approved by the board of equalization of Limestone county being a fair and reasonable taxable value to be placed upon the property said corporation just like values are placed upon your property for taxable purposes. It was the legal duty of the county attorney to represent the county in this case without any additional expense for lawyers to the county save and except the salary allowed the county attorney by law and that of the legally appointed deputies of the county attorney.

In the same year the Magnolia Petroleum Company brought suit against Limestone county in the same court in an effort to get out of paying the just and honest taxes due by said company to Limestone county of the sum of $81,053.94. Lawyers were employed in this case at an additional expense to Limestone county of $5,000.00. This case was compromised without a legal contest for $60,000.00 which was less than 75% of the taxes due the county by the Magnolia Petroleum Company paid the lawyers who represented the county the $5,000.00 lawyer fee for a corresponding reduction in taxes, and all cost of filing the suit, which was less than $200.00.

Under the law for the collection of delinquent taxes the county attorney must first fail to perform his legal and official duty and thereby violate his oath of office before the Commissioners' Court is authorized to contract with a lawyer to file suit to collect delinquent taxes, and if the county attorney should or does fail to file suit to collect said taxes, he is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than $1000.00 and in addition thereto subject to being removed from office.

For the last four months of 1923, viz; September, October, November and December that contract which was made upon the recommendation of the county attorney cost Limestone County $7,608.63, or an average of $1,802.13 per month for the first four months of its existence. I do not know what it has cost the county for the six and one half months of the year 1924, but the records disclose the amount and the cost is mounting up each month.

But Mr. Reed has continuously evaded the question as to whether or not the contract was a split or kick-back proposition, or that he did or did not receive the amounts I have just told you about, and his comments upon it is that is not the way to play politics, that it won't win, that I am mad because he beat me two years ago, that it is mad brought forward by me to defeat him, the last few days before the election and similar statements, each and all of which are totally at variance with the truth. And the fact that he beat me two years ago does not authorize or justify him in embezzling any part of the county's funds. Friday Night

Jamie Heron, the noted author and humorist who charmed large audiences here last winter, has, through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce and the courtesy of the Waco Drug Company, consented to entertain the general public Friday night at 8 o'clock in the street in front of the Hurdleston Hotel. It is indeed a privilege to have one so well informed on community unity, and so able a speaker to address us at this time. Mr. Heron's talks are non-political, non-sectarian but straight to the point that is of vital interest to every community. The building of better men is one of Mr. Heron's important points in building community unity. Through the building of better men, better business is built and, which is perfectly natural, a better community in which to live.

TOM M. CAIN
For Tax Assessor

The Tax Assessor deals with every man's property in this county. He must know something of every school district and every road district in this county. Upon his knowledge of lots, blocks, surveys, and the like, depends the correctness of the rendition of 50 million dollars worth of property, including yours.

In this important office you should have a man who has not only been honest and clean all his life, but one who by training and qualifications is fitted to give you good service.

I claim to have the requirements named above and if I do not I am unworthy of your support. My four years experience as Tax Assessor has familiarized me with every duty incumbent upon that officer.

Every bank in this county uses trained and experienced men in its most important places. No wholesale house will use a traveling salesman to call on its best customers unless such sales man has had previous training in selling goods.

Every school board in the county demands of its teachers certain qualifications, training and experience. All successful businesses use their trained and experienced men in their most responsible places. Don't let that seem a sound business policy to you?

Investigate the character and qualifications of the men offering and vote your best judgment for the good of your country. It is a business proposition with me—I want the office for the money it pays. I ask you to make it a business proposition—vote for the best man. When you have done that, you have done your whole duty and I shall be satisfied.

I shall strive to give you prompt, efficient and courteous service, if elected. If you can give me your vote on this basis, I shall appreciate it.

JOHNSON WAKEFIELD
Candidate For Judge Limestone County Court

I am a candidate for the office of County Judge of Limestone County Court, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the Democratic Primaries Saturday, July 26, 1924.

I have always been a Democrat and have supported its nominees in every election and believe in the enforcement of all laws, and this includes the prohibition laws as well as all others. I believe in good schools, good churches, good roads, good government and happy homes. I am opposed to waste or extravagance in any public office and if I am elected, I will conduct the office in a clean, faithful, and business like way and in such a manner that it will reflect credit on Limestone County.

I am 47 years of age and have been a Limestone resident and citizen continuously since 1892, 16 years of which I taught in the public school system of the county. For the past three years and a half I have served as clerk of the district court, efficiently and faithfully, and now I am asking that the people promote me to the office of the County Judge where I will have greater opportunities for service to my fellow citizens and to our great county.

I invite your most careful investigation of my record as a public official and as a private citizen, and if you find me worthy, I will thank you for your support.

BIBLE DISTRIBUTION

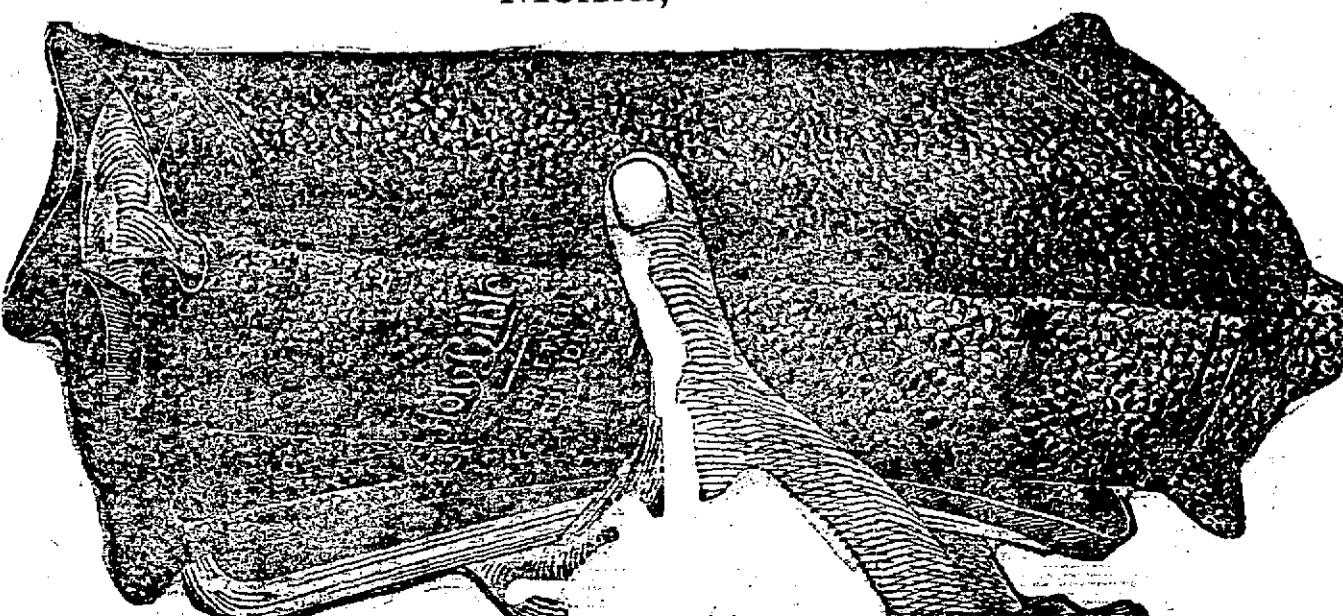

Following the most distressing period of unrest the world has ever known, comes a world-wide revival of Bible reading, which must tend to ameliorate the unrestful conditions of mankind. To encourage such an end, leading newspapers throughout this country have joined forces to promote the distribution of the great Book of Books, and have adopted a plan that should readily place the Bible in the hands of every reader. Two exclusive editions have been chosen for this purpose—first, the famous large print Red Letter Bible, illustrated herein, and a beautiful plain print, medium large type edition that will be distributed for a nominal sum by the News Publishing Co.

CAMPAIGN ISSUES ARE AS VARIED AS EMOTIONS OF MEN

The political campaign in this state is waxing warm. In Limestone and Freestone counties it is particularly hot. The political pot is boiling.

This situation is due largely to local affairs. Each county has its own records. These please one side and displease another generally speaking.

In Limestone county, the issues carried to the people are as checkered as human emotions. In the southern part of the county, especially, several candidates, refusing to stand on the Democratic party platform as recently written by Democrats from every state in the Union in New York, are doing their utmost to inject the religious issue into the party by a fight in the Ku Klux Klan. Such a policy is being denounced by both non-Klan and Klan alike, by men who know that the interest of the party is higher than any particular office and any departure from the platform principles which frown on the injection of the religious issue, will jeopardize party welfare and is contrary to the spirit of unity that is one of the cornerstones that uphold the party.

Where it is popular to do so, also, an attack is being made upon Mexia, despite the fact that no citizen of Mexia has been honored with public office in Limestone County within the past twenty-eight years.

In the meantime, this end of the county is locked upon as the battle ground by the element that is fighting it and representatives of that element are working day and night in this section to influence voters whom they probably abuse the day before.

Quietly the wet forces in the county have been working in behalf of their favored candidates and although many contend that the prohibition question has been settled in this country, conditions throughout the country, brought on by friends of the liquor traffic, indicate that everything is being done to enthronize the whiskey king again.

The enormous expenditure of public funds and tax money for the construction of a county court house, without the consent of the people who pay for public improvements, has aroused general indignation all over Limestone and this will be one of the most important issues by which ballots are determined Saturday.

Also, opposition is expressed against the employment of attorneys outside of the County and District Attorneys' offices, at great cost, to represent Limestone County. This criticism has not centered against any one particular official and candidate but against several seeking re-election and others outside, who are classed as members of a ring that is alleged to be doing its utmost to control the affairs of the

The so-called "ring" is also being attacked and at the same time friends are rallying to it and aiding it in being a factor in the campaign.

Not much hard feeling has been expressed, as far, very openly. Fighting on both sides has been carried on in the spirit of good humor generally. Friends are dividing on many of the candidates, but still retaining their friendships for one another, as they should. The battle will be waged seriously Saturday. Every citizen is urged to keep cool, to the end that the right thing may be done.

And when its all over but the shouting, the citizenship of the county will return to the even tenor of their ways and leave the matter of government largely to the machinery of government, to our Judiciary, to our Grand Juries, to our Commissioners Court and to those entrusted to public office. May the best men and women win.

County Judge Kirby—

being called over long distance telephone this afternoon for a statement relative to his candidacy for County Judge, being in the midst of a trial of importance of the County Court, regrets that he is unable at this time to make a detailed statement in behalf of his candidacy, because he has discussed the issues involved in the County Judge's race upon almost every stump in Limestone county and that his platform is the same as has been discussed and published in the press of Limestone County heretofore and as to charges brought against him on account of a new court house, he wishes to state that he has no apologies to offer to any man or set of men for his actions therein, because he used his better judgment in acting as he did.

Also relative to the highway litigation, he was seeking to keep automobile money paid as taxes in Limestone County for the purpose of building the county roads in Limestone county in order that the farmers might be enabled to haul their products off their farms to markets and that all insinuations hurled against the County Judge for his stand against the highway commission as driving Federal aid out of Limestone county is unwarranted as the County Judge has in his possession authority that there is not one dollar of Federal aid now available for Limestone county nor any other county and that there will not be any more Federal aid available until Congress makes a new appropriation for Federal aid for building roads.

He desires to further add that in answer to the argument that he is dictated to by any man or any set of men has been false and without any ground of assertion of any party or parties, and, that he is not the only County Judge in Limestone County who has sought to be elected to the third term as a number of his predecessors have served more than two terms, and if the citizenship sees fit to reelect him, he will promise to conduct the office fair and square to the entire citizenship of Limestone County.

WHEREAS, on the 10th day of July, 1924, the City Commission considered the returns and canvassed the same, and found that there was cast at said election 479 votes for the adoption of the Charter and 341 votes against the adoption of the Charter; and the Commission thereupon by resolution duly entered declared that the Charter so submitted was adopted by majority vote of the qualified voters of said City voting at said election; and

WHEREAS, the Charter adopted provided that there should be elected two additional members of the City Commission to hold office until the first Tuesday in April, 1926, or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF MEXIA:

Section 1: That an election shall be held in the City of Mexia, Texas, on the 12th day of August, 1924, for the purpose of electing two additional members of the City Commission.

Section 2: That the polling place and presiding officers of said election shall be respectively as follows: The polling place shall be at the City Hall in the City of Mexia, Texas, and T. B. Gathman is hereby designated as presiding officer.

Section 3: That an election shall be held under the provisions of Section 4, Article XVI of the Charter of the City of Mexia, Texas.

Section 4: All persons desiring to become candidates for members of the City Commission shall file their names with the City Secretary of the City of Mexia, Texas, not later than the 8th day of August, 1924, at 5 o'clock p. m. and the names so filed shall be printed on said ballot as candidates to be voted upon at said election.

Section 5: A copy of this ordinance shall be sufficient notice of said election and ten (10) days notice of the time and place of holding said election shall be given by posting certified copies thereof at the place designated for holding said election, at least ten (10) days prior to the holding of said election, and by publication of said notice not less than ten (10) full days from day of the election.

Section 6: The fact that the Charter of the City of Mexia provides that there shall be five (5) members of the City Commission and that there are now only three creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity for the suspension of the rules requiring ordinances to be read upon more than one day, and for the immediate taking effect of this ordinance, and such rules are hereby suspended, and it is ordained that this ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage, approval and publication.

Passed and approved this the 14th day of July, 1924.

Present Baseball Situation Summed Up By Local Fan

By SCRIBBLES

As the end of the present season draws to a close the race narrows down to a struggle between the Waco Indians, Corsicana Oilers and the Marlin Bathers. And it is almost certain that these clubs will finish in the first division unless someone gives them a sure enough jolt before long. Temple, Austin and Mexia seem to be the contenders for the second division with Austin and Mexia showing up the best although Temple has been playing good ball for the last few games taking a double header from the Oilers on the latter's home grounds.

BROWN HOSPITAL RENDERS GREAT SERVICE TO SECTION

The Brown Hospital is one of the most serviceable institutions in this section of Texas. Located on Ross Avenue, it is rendering a needed humanitarian service not only for citizens of Mexia but for all surrounding communities and towns. Patients are being brought here from points throughout the Mexia territory each week, as it is known that this city boasts of one of the finest hospitals in the State. The well arranged institution is equipped with the most modern of hospital appliances, fittings and arrangements and here as fine a group of physicians and surgeons may be found as can be found in the larger cities of the states. Dr. Marion M. Brown is president of the Hospital association.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's hero—None other than the Bambino himself. Ruth's 29th homer of the season, coming in the 11th inning knocked the Yankees back into first place, Detroit going down lighting, 4 to 3.

The Red Sox took a slugging contest from Cleveland, 16 to 12, ten pitchers going to the well.

Washington made it three straight from the White Sox, 4 to 2, getting all their runs in the fourth when Faber reeked.

McQuillan pitched masterly ball, allowing but three hits and the Giants beat the Reds, 3 to 1.

Bernie Neis batted for Tom Griffith in the tenth and delivered a two-bagger which let the Dodgers beat the Pirates, 4 to 3.

Scoring eight runs in the first two innings, the Phils took their fourth straight from the Cards, 8 to 5.

Urban Shocker shut out the Mackmen, the Browns making it three straight, 7 to 0.

The Cubs sent Jess Barnes to the showers in the second and had enough runs to beat the Braves, 5 to 2.

Lawley Asks Why Not?

Why is it that your County Attorney, Mr. Scott Reed, has persistently refused or neglected to publicly show the people of the county his bank statements, cancelled checks and deposit slips for the months of October, November, and December, 1923, and January, 1924?

On the 28th day of last month in the presence and hearing of Mr. Reed, I asked him in a public address at Coolidge, Texas, before three or four hundred people to show to the people of the county the bank statements and cancelled checks, of checks and deposit slips will show the three parties? And I also told that upon October, 6, 1923, your County Attorney—Mr. Scott Reed, have a picture made of them and illegally received a check for $580.84 send a copy of the pictures to every voter in the county so that each voter could see for himself just what was being done with their money. I also told him that he was a public official dealing with money that belonged to the County and the people of the county and the other two parties were employed by the county, and that as they were servants of the county, the people had a right to know what their public officials, employees and servants were doing with the people's money.

Why should the people not know the truth about how their money is being spent? The bank statements, cancelled of its existence, but saying nothing about what he has received for the County tax contract. Mr. Reed, show all the people of the County the bank statements, cancelled checks, and deposit slips of the three parties or say why you cannot do so.

The law was, starting regular since the adoption of June 1923, for the County Attorney, Mr. Scott Reed, to file his annual report.

Mr. Scott Reed is not going to show the public the bank statements, cancelled checks, and deposit slips of the three parties for the months of October, November and December, 1923, and January, 1924, because they will substantiate, corroborate and verify every statement I have made about the split and kick-back account for the $2,859.09 he received in his annual report.

Lest We Forget

Fellow Democrats, just to refresh your memory, let us hark back two years and see what we find.

Do you remember that after one of the bitterest campaigns in the history of the Democracy of this State, the Hon. Earle B. Mayfield was duly and regularly nominated by a majority of about 50,000 votes?

Do you remember that his nomination was certified to by the Democratic Executive Committee of the State and his name furnished each and every Democratic County Chairman in the State to be placed on the Democratic ticket at the November election?

Do you remember that the Republican party of Texas nominated for United States Senator one Geo. E. B. Pddy, who had bolted the action of the Democratic party, notwithstanding his solemn pledge to abide its action and support its nominees?

Do you remember the long drawn out legal battle instigated by this Republican nominee and his cohorts in an effort to discredit and nullify the expressed will and wishes of the Democrats of this State?

Do you remember that for the purpose of defeating the regular Democratic nominee and electing the Republican nominee, the lumber king of Texas and one of the oil magnates put up in cash about $70,000.00?

Do you remember that the dozen or so paid attorneys employed for and by the Republican nominee for the purpose of defeating the regular nominee of the Democratic party resorted to every trick and caprice known to the legal fraternity?

Do you remember that immediately preceding the general election in November, these paid attorneys scoured Central and North Texas in search of a District Judge who would grant an injunction restraining the County Chairmen and Election officers from placing the name of the regular Democratic nominee on the Democratic ticket?

Do you remember that in their pitiful plight and sheer desperation they sought the Hon. A. M. Blackman, Judge of the 77th District, who bent his knee to their behests, granting to the attorneys and cohorts of the Republican nominee, a sweeping injunction, covering each and every county, precinct and voting box in the State of Texas, restraining and prohibiting the placing of the name of the Nominee of the Democratic party on the Democratic ticket?

Do you remember that as a result of this action, had it not been for the prompt and decisive action of the Court of Civil Appeals, the will and wishes of a large majority of the Democrats of Texas would have perished on the altar of "Government by Injunction"?

Do you remember that this same just, honorable and learned Judge of the 77th District has feasted at the good old Democratic table all these years and when the party found itself in dire distress, he ruthlessly smote the hand that had fed him?

Loyal Democrats, true to the traditions of your party, think on these things. They are of too recent occurrence to have escaped your memory.

Ours should not be a Government by Injunction, but an orderly, sane judicial procedure in keeping with the provisions of our written statutes and constitution.
